MRS. A.P. (MAE) ANDERSON

Mrs. A. P. Anderson, former Argyle resident, died Sunday, Feb. 19, at Burnsville, Minn.

The former Mae Nelson was born May 2, 1905, in Pomory, Ia., the youngest child of Gustav and Susanna Nelson. In 1918 the family moved to Madelia, Minn. where she lived until her marriage to Pastor Alvor P. Anderson, also of Madelia on December 19, 1929.

Mae's special talents and interests centered around music. She taught herself to play the piano and organ, and served as organist and choir director in the parishes to which they were called. Her love of music inspired the young people of the congregations, as well as her own children, to appreciate music and develop their musical abilities. After her children were grown, she continued to donate time and enthusiasm, providing music to nursing homes and hospitals.

She is survived by three daughters, Ada Mae Burris, LaJolla, Ca.; Donna Louise Schlorf, St. Cloud, Minn.; Carol Kay Geldert, Minnetonka, Minn.; one son, Curtis DeWayne Anderson, Omaha, Neb.; seven grandsons and one granddaughter. She is also survived by two sisters, Hazel Larson, Madelia, Minn. and Juvey Anderson of Pomeroy, Ia. She was preceded in death by her parents, her husband, A. P. Anderson, and three brothers, Emmet, Herbert and Harold Nelson.

Rev. and Mrs. A. P. Anderson served the Adams and Argyle Lutheran Churches from 1942 to 1956.

Paul W. Anderson, 85, Lake Delton, died Saturday, September 30, 1995 at the Continental Manor Care Center in Wisconsin Dells. He was born September 3, 1910 in Argyle, the son of Alfred and Julia [Poff] Anderson. He married Julia L. "Judy" Wallace on January 4, 1942 in Davisville, Rhode Island and she preceded him in death on October 13, 1991. Mr. Anderson was a veteran of World War II, having served in the United States Navy with the 69th Naval Construction Battalion [SeaBees] in the European Theatre of Operations. He was a police officer for many years, serving Los Angeles, Argyle, Sauk City and Lake Delton, as well as the Sauk County Sheriff's Department. He was a member of St. Paul's Lutheran Church, Sauk County Law Enforcement Association, Marshall V.F.W. and the Lions Club.

Survivors include one daughter, Dale Cleveland, Lake Delton; two grandchildren, Brent [Kim] Cleveland, Sauk City and Krista [Gary] Nechvtal, Verona; four great-grandchildren, Shea Cleveland, Pryor, Oklahoma, Roebe Cleveland, Phoenix, Arizona, Brien Nechvtal, Verona and an expected great-grandchild; three brothers, Earl [Christine] Anderson, Fayetteville, Alaska, Dale [Dorothy] Anderson, Marshall and Irvin [Fran] Anderson, Rockaway Beach, Missouri; three sisters, Inez Foesch, San Gabriel, California, Eunice [Howard] Olds, Hot Springs Village, Alaska and Irene [Bob] Meyer, Blanchardville; nieces, nephews, cousins and good friends. In addition to his wife, he was preceded in death by an infant daughter, Sandra Kay and three brothers, Glenn, Lester and Girth.

Memorial services were held Tuesday, October 3 at 10:30 a.m. in St. Paul's Lutheran Church with Pastor J. Philemon Anderson officiating. Interment took place in Woodlawn Cemetery in Argyle. The Rago-Hanson Funeral Home assisted the family.
