

Lloyd Anderson

Lloyd M. Anderson, 75, Darlington, formerly of Ridgeway, died Sept. 17, 2002, at the Don and Marilyn Anderson Hospice Center, Fitchburg, surrounded by his loving family, after a brief, but courageous battle with cancer.

He was born May 22, 1927, in Dodgeville, to Ole H. and Julia (Knutson) Anderson. He was a graduate of Dodgeville High School and attended UW Madison. He married the former Joan Beecher, Ridgeway, on April 23, 1949. Lloyd and Joan farmed most of their married life in Ridgeway. She preceded him in death on Dec. 30, 1993. On Nov. 4, 2000, he married Jean Mottley.

He loved people and always put others before himself. Lloyd had many accomplishments as a master salesman. He loved nature and spending time with his family. Lloyd's love of nature was reflected in the many hours he spent tending his flowers and feeding the array of birds that would come and visit his beautiful flowers. He also enjoyed planting tens of thousands of trees across the countryside with his family.

Survivors include his loving wife, Jean; his children: Bonnie (Ken) Schaaf, Janesville; Larry (Beth) Anderson, Greenfield; Jeff (Jeanie) Anderson, Ridgeway; Mary (Mark) Yonjof, Summerfield, N.C.; Julie (Paul) Haack, Ridgeway; and Renee Anderson, Dodgeville; 12 grandchildren: Rick, Angela, Kellen, Evan, Kyle, Alex, Connor, Dylan, Taylor, Carly, Jenna and Molly; two sisters: Arlene Myhr, Madison; and Marie Hartman, Las Vegas, Nev.; also Jean's children: Connie (David) Heins, Darlington; Peggy (Oskar) Rupp, Vancouver, Wash.; Bobbi Stauffacher, Mineral Point; Carol (Randy) Egan, Rochester, Minn. He was also preceded in death by his mother and father, 4 brothers: Melvin, Raymond, Otto and Gilman; and two sisters: Jeannette and Blanche.

A Mass of Christian Burial and celebration of his life was held on Sept. 21, 2002, at St. Bridget's Catholic Church, Ridgeway. Burial was in the church cemetery.

Gorgen-McGinley & Ayers Funeral Home, Dodgeville, served the family.

Dad - thank you for the legacy of your loving, giving, and gentle nature. You will remain in our hearts until we are all reunited again. We will keep on feeding the birds and planting the trees. You...

Helen Anderson

Mrs. Helen L. Anderson, Platteville, 79, died on Tuesday evening, Feb. 14, 1989, at Southwest Health Center Hospital in Platteville.

Helen attended Platteville schools and received her Bachelor's Education Degree in 1933 from the State Teachers' College in Platteville. She taught in various schools for several years.

She was united in marriage to Victor E. Anderson on June 10, 1939. They made their home in Milwaukee. He died in 1957. She taught from 1957 until 1971 in Whitefish Bay Public Schools. She took many graduate courses at U.W.-Milwaukee during this time. She retired in Platteville in 1971.

She was a member of the Platteville United Methodist Church. She was a member and past president of the United Methodist Women, the Retired Teachers' Association, and the Monday Evening Club. She also served on the Platteville Library Board at the time of construction of the new library.

Survivors include a daughter, Judy (Robert) Anderson Ruch, Des Moines, Iowa; a son, Gerald R. Anderson, Asheville, N.C.; four grandchildren; and a sister, Mrs. Robert (Eleanor) Horn.

Funeral services were held on Friday, Feb. 17, 1989, at the Platteville United Methodist Church with Pastor Carol Henderson officiating.

Rd 9-26-02