

Harry Anderson

Harry A. Anderson, 86, Richland Center, and formerly of Belmont, died June 14, 2004, at Heartland Health Care Center, Platteville.

He was born Dec. 1, 1917, in Jordan Township, Green County, the son of Andrew and Hannah (Hanson) Anderson.

Harry was baptized and confirmed at the Jordan Lutheran Church and attended rural schools in Green County. He served three and a half years during World War II and participated in the invasion of Normandy, France. In 1947, he married Lenore Johnson, Wiota. He farmed all of his life and while living in the Belmont area, Harry managed the Cassidy Farms for 30 years. He was a member of the Peace Lutheran Church, Belmont. He retired to the Richland Center area in 1991, where he attended the Five Points Lutheran Church, Blue River. Harry was an avid harness horse racer and was actively involved in the Wisconsin Harness Horse Association. He was named "Horse Person of the Year" and also received the presidents award for his years of service. He will always be remembered for the love and care he provided for his family.

He is survived by his wife, Lenore, Richland Center; three daughters: Carolyn (Dean) Prochaska, Platteville; Linda (Steve Faherty) Anderson, Platteville; Joan (Bill) Farmer, Cornell; six grandchildren: Lori (Jim Larson) Ames, Platteville; Jeanie (Dennis) Nelson, Endeavor; Derek Diedrichs, Rock Falls, Ill.; John Diedrichs, Wall, S.D.; Brian Nodolf, Sun Prairie; Nathan (Kelly) Nodolf, Eau Claire; six great-grandchildren: Haley, Tanner, Ty, Cody, Austin and Wade; two sisters

Nora Rubi, Monroe and Janet Anderson, Prairie du Sac; two brothers, Robert (Helen) Anderson, Browntown and Gene (Betty) Anderson, Cassville; one sister in law, Helen G. Anderson, Monroe; a special friend, Mark Nodolf, Cornell; and many nieces and nephews.

He was preceded in death by his parents, seven brothers: Norman, Floyd, Charles, James, George, Morgan, and Franklin Anderson; and four sisters: Ruth Krebs, Alice Mani, Esther Stelter and Mabel Anderson in infancy.

Funeral services were Thursday, June 17, 2004 at the Peace Lutheran Church, Belmont. Visitation: 4 p.m. to 7 p.m. Wednesday, June 16, at the Bendorf Funeral Home, Platteville, which is serving the family.

AA 12/16/76

sons, Lindell and Claude Daniel, both of Milwaukee; four daughters, Mrs. Linda Bumpke, Milwaukee; Mrs. Connie Granberg, Argyle; Mrs. Vicki Mason, Brodhead, and Juliana, at home; two sisters, Mrs. Morris Brattlie, Mt. Horeb, and Mrs. Stella Pollack, Barneveld, and eight grandchildren.

Services were held Saturday afternoon, Dec. 11, in the West Blue Mounds Lutheran Church. Rev. Robert Twiton officiated. Burial was in the West Blue Mounds Cemetery.

OBITUARIES

Ball

Lyvian Ball, 66, Blue Mounds, died on Wednesday, Dec. 8, in a Madison nursing home after a long illness.

Mr. Ball was born at Hollandale on Dec. 5, 1910. He was married to the former Betty Nelson on Dec. 20, 1947. He farmed at Mineral Point, Darlington and Argyle and Dubuque, Iowa. He was a veteran of World War II.

Surviving are his wife, two

M T 9-06-2000

Roy Bahler

ARGYLE — Roy Bahler, age 78 of Argyle, WI, died Wednesday, July 5, 2000 at his home. He was born on December 14, 1921 in York Township, rural Blanchardville, WI, the son of Robert and Anna (Jaussi) Bahler. He attended rural schools in the Argyle-Blanchardville area. His lifetime was devoted to farming in the Argyle area on Puddledock Road and he was a member of the Blanchardville Lutheran Church.

Surviving are a brother, Alfred Bahler of Monroe; 3 sisters, Bernice Barry of Argyle, Hedwig Holcomb of Monroe and Hilda Ammon of Rochelle, IL.; and numerous nieces and nephews. He was predeceased by his parents; 2 brothers, Robert and William; and 3 sisters, Lillian, Ruth, and Gertrude.

Funeral services will be held on Saturday, July 8, 2000 at 10:30 A.M. at SHRINER-HAGER-GOHLKE FUNERAL HOME, 1455 Mansion Drive and 18th Avenue in Monroe with Rev. Thomas E. Boll of Blanchardville and York Lutheran Churches Officiating. Burial will follow in Greenwood Cemetery in Monroe.

Friends may call Friday, July 7, 2000 from 5:00 to 8:00 P.M. at SHRINER-HAGER-GOHLKE FUNERAL HOME.

Roy was very generous, always helping his neighbors, and was a perfectionist in what he did. He will be missed by all that knew him.