Pat Dunn

John Patrick Dunn, known affectionately as "Poor Pat," 84, Cape Coral, Fla., formerly of South Wayne, died peacefully July 15, 2007 at his home.

He was born in Wiota Township Oct. 14, 1922, the son of Myrtle Raisbeck and John "Jack" Hubert Dunn. On March 2, 1946 he married Mae Lillian Berget at St. Joseph's Catholic Church, Gratiot. In August 1995 the old Dunn farm was recognized and awarded the Century Ownership Certificate of 100 years continuous family ownership from 1883 to 1995 by the state of Wisconsin. Pat farmed in South Wayne for 30 years before moving to Cape Coral in December 1975. Pat established Dovetail Cabinets, Inc., in 1976, and then later Dunn Homes Partnership.

He was a member of St. Andrews Catholic Church in Florida and the Cape Coral Moose Fraternity. Pat cherished his family. They were paramount to him. He loved nothing better than to spend time with his grandchildren and great-grandchildren. Pat loved to dance and especially enjoyed playing euchre.

If friends or family stood in one spot for more than a few minutes, he could be heard saying, "Well, let's get a game going, what are we standing around for?" His last evening was spent surrounded with family and friends in which he won the final game of euchre with a lone hand.

His is survived by his wife, Mae; four sons: Lee (Linda), Jack (Betty); Mark (Cheryl) Dunn, Cape Coral, Fla.; Terry Dunn, Gratiot; a daughter, Sonja (Dave "Ike") Wiegel, Shullsburg; 18 grandchildren; and 10 great-grandchildren. He was preceded in death by his parents; three sisters: Mary Olson, Celia Bergum and Rose Holverson; a son, Tom; and four grandchildren: John, Christopher, Chelsie and Tommy.

Mass of Christian Burial was held July 20, 2007 at St. John's Catholic Church, South Wayne. Father Mick Moon officiated. Burial was at St. Joseph's Catholic Cemetery, Gratiot. The Steil Camacho Funeral Home, Darlington, served the family.
