Zelda P. Watson age 98 of King, WI, formerly of Argyle, WI, passed away on Thursday, June 14, 2007 at the Wisconsin Veteran's Home in King, WI. Zelda was born on May 9, 1909 in Argyle to John and Adelle (Hendrickson) Wahler. She graduated from Argyle High School in 1928. Zelda was united in marriage to Ellsworth C. Watson on October 29, 1938 in Dubuque, IA. She lived in Argyle before moving to Milwaukee, WI where she worked at Globe Union until moving to Mineral Wells, Texas while her husband served in the Army during WWII. In 1943 she moved back to Argyle where she resided until moving to King in September 2005. Zelda worked as a clerk at Clover Farm and Rossing's grocery stores before becoming the bookkeeper for Vinger Implement in Argyle for 25 years, retiring in 1971.

Zelda is survived by her son: Douglas (Judy) Watson of Scandinavia, Wisconsin; five grandchildren; and eleven great-grandchildren. She was preceded in death by her husband Ellsworth on January 17, 1988; two brothers: Gordon and Royal Wahler; two sisters: Gwendolyn Sowl and Bernice Dillon; and a great-granddaughter: Taylor Rose Klepps. Zelda was a member of Argyle United Methodist Church and its UMW. She was a past Sunday School teacher, and church bookkeeper. Zelda loved to make crafts and doll clothes for her grandchildren. She enjoyed walking and playing cards, especially 500, cribbage, and Skipbo. She also enjoyed collecting tea cups. Considered by many to be one of the best bakers in Argyle, her family always looked forward to her Christmas cookies and Norwegian pastries. Zelda will be sadly missed and fondly remembered by her family and friends.

A graveside service was held on Saturday, June 23, 2007 at 11:30 a.m. at Woodlawn Cemetery in Argyle with Rev. David Wanish of St. Joseph Catholic Church in Argyle officiating. The Erickson Funeral Home in Argyle is serving the family. www.ericksonfuneral-home.com
