Lenora A. Bredeson, age 92 of Argyle, WI passed away on Thursday, September 20, 2007 at Pleasant View Nursing Home in Monroe, WI. She was born on March 26, 1915, in Lafayette County, WI to Andrew and Emma (Phillipson) Waage. Lenora was united in marriage to Leland F. Bredeson on November 20, 1935 in Argyle, WI. She lived and farmed with her husband in Darlington Township for five years, the Phillipson homestead in Argyle Township for ten years, and later in Fayette Township for nineteen years. In 1969 they retired into the village of Argyle where they have resided since.

Lenora is survived by her children: Paul (Alice) Bredeson of rural Darlington, WI, and Rita (Harold) Thompson of rural Argyle; five grandchildren: Lisa (Kim) Trumble, Scott (Heidi) Bredeson, Nicole (Scott) Matley, Eric (Krista) Thompson, and Kimberly Thompson; five great-grandchildren; two brothers: Sylvan (Lorraine) Waage of Monroe, WI, Arleigh (Barb) Waage of Rockford, IL; and one sister: Esther Disch of New Glarus, WI. She was preceded in death by her parents; her husband, Leland on April 12, 1981; two brothers: Orville and Amos Waage; and three sisters: Ellen Disch, Eva Robertson, and Delores Van Arx.

Lenora was a member of Yellowstone Lutheran Church and the Women of the ELCA. She was an avid china painter, enjoyed making Lefsa, crocheting afghans, but above all she loved spending time with her family. Lenora will always be remembered for her sweet disposition.

Funeral Services were held on Monday, September 24, 2007 at 11:00 A.M. at Yellowstone Lutheran Church in Argyle, WI with Rev. Daniel Bohlman officiating. Burial was at Yellowstone Lutheran Church Cemetery in rural Argyle. A visitation was held on Sunday, September 23 at Erickson Funeral

Nathan Mick, age 21 of Argyle,

WI passed away on Sunday, September 23, 2007 at his home. He was born in Monroe, WI on September 2, 1986 to Daniel P. and Lorna K. (Ritschard) Mick. Nate graduated from Argyle High School in 2005. He lived in Argyle all of his life. Following graduation from high school, he worked as a graphic arts printer for R.B.S. Active Wear in Argyle.

Nate is survived by his parents: Daniel (Lorna) Mick of Argyle; his maternal grandmother: Darlyne Bernet of Argyle, WI; maternal grandfather: Delbert Ritschard of Argyle; paternal grandfather: Phillip Mick of Treasure Island, FL; his sisters: Brenda Mick of Union Grove, WI, and Jaqueline (Tussout) Minnette of Whitewater, WI; his brothers: Steve (Sheryl) Mick of Argyle, and Daniel Mick of Darien, WI; many aunts and uncles, nieces and nephews, cousins, and friends. He was preceded in death by his paternal grandmother: Rosemary Mick; maternal grandfather: John Bernet; and cousin: Kristi Ritschard.

Nate was a member of Argyle United Methodist Church. He had a passion for the outdoors. Nate spent countless hours in the woods hunting wild game. He had a still life camera to photograph deer in his favorite spots. Nate's paddle boat and canoe were always in use fishing in the Pecatonica. Camping trips to the Northwoods, or down to Florida would be sure to produce trophy fish and game. Nate also won awards for his wildlife drawings. He had lots of friends and spent time connecting with them on the Internet. His newest interest was learning to play the guitar, as he liked many different styles of music. His friendly personality and varied talents will leave special memories for many family and friends.

Funeral services will be held on Friday, September 28, 2007 at 11:00 A.M. at Argyle United Methodist Church in Argyle with Rev. Craig Conklin and Msgr. Thomas Campion co-officiating. Burial will be at Woodlawn Cemetery in Argyle. A visitation will be held on Thursday, September 27, 2007 from 4:00 until 8:00 P.M. at Erickson Funeral Home in Argyle. Online condolences may be left for the family at www.ericksonfuneralhome.com

For those who prefer, a memorial fund has been established in Nate's name.
