Clarence Bennett 7-28-05

Clarence "Curly" E. Bennett, 75, Darlington, died April 22, 2005 at UW Hospital, Madison.

He was born April 5, 1930 in Kendall Township, the son of Louis and Irene (Lutes) Bennett. Curly graduated from Ridgeway High School in 1949. He was united in marriage to Deanne Speth on Nov. 15, 1958 at Peace Lutheran Church, Belmont.

Curly lived in Darlington most of his life, where he worked as an electrician for Ewing Electric, hauled livestock for P.S. Elzen and William Eustice and Sons Trucking and later worked as an appliance serviceman for R.E.A. for over 20 years. In 1986, Curly began driving truck for McMorhan Trucking and later Korth Transfer and most recently worked as an assembler for Merkle-Korff, retiring in 2002. Curly also worked for a number of other trucking companies on a part-time basis throughout the years.

He was a member of Grace Lutheran Church, Darlington, its past council president and a charter member of the Darlington Lions Club. He was also an honorary member of the Darlington Fire Department. Curly enjoyed fishing, camping, playing cards with his family and friends and was a true Badgers and Packers fan. Curly may have had only one child, but he touched the lives of many children throughout the years.

He is survived by his wife, Deanne; a son, Jeff (Sandy) Bennett, Darlington; four brothers: Wayne (Eleanor) Bennett, Cuba City; Leonard (Sandy) Bennett, Linden; Daryle (Vicki) Bennett, Benton; William (Debbie) Bennett, Warren, Ill.; two special young men, Anthony and Dillon Frick, Darlington; and many nieces and nephews. He was preceded in death by his parents and a sister, Helen Joyce, in infancy.

Funeral services were held April 25, 2005 at Grace Lutheran Church, Darlington. The Rev. Todd Hunter officiated. Burial was in Union Grove Cemetery, Darlington. A memorial fund has been established in Curly's name. The Erickson Funeral Home, Darlington, served the family.

The family would like to thank Drs. Lori Neumann and Michael Lucey and the Barneveld and Dodgeville EMS. A special thank you to the nursing staff of Memorial Hospital of Lafayette County and for the phenomenal support and care we received from the UW Hospital nursing staff.
