

AA ADA BERG 11-30-88

Mrs. Lawrence (Ada E.) Berg, age 83, of rural Argyle, died Monday, Nov. 21, at the Monroe Manor Nursing Home.

The daughter of Henry and Sophia (Thompson) Hanson, she was born in Wiota Township September 15, 1905. She attended Mills School and lived on the same farm in Jordan Township most of her life.

She married Lawrence V. Berg in the East Wiota Parsonage November 25, 1922. She was a member of the Jordan Lutheran Church and its Faith Circle, the ELCA and Mills Homemakers.

Surviving are a son, Harry E. Berg, rural Argyle; a daughter, Mrs. Arthur (Betty) Rygh, rural South Wayne; a daughter-in-law, Mrs. Freeman (Edna) Berg, Monroe; seven grandchildren and 11 great-grandchildren. She was preceded in death by her husband in 1979, a son Freeman, a granddaughter, and a brother in infancy.

Funeral services were held Friday, Nov. 25, at 11 a.m. at the Jordan Lutheran Church with the Rev. Howard Bucholz, II officiating. Burial was in Jordan Lutheran Cemetery.

Frieda Lancaster RJ 4-19-07

Frieda M. Lancaster, 94, Darlington, died April 14, 2007 at Lafayette Manor, Darlington.

She was born Feb. 19, 1913 in Fayette Township, the daughter of John and Marie (Trauer) Wenger. Frieda was united in marriage to Glenn W. Lancaster, Sr., on Dec. 31, 1930 in Cuba City.

She lived and farmed in Lamont and Darlington Townships with her husband until their retirement in 1951.

Frieda was a member of the Lamont United Methodist Church and its UMW.

She enjoyed being with and taking pride in caring for and raising her family. Frieda also liked fishing and working in her flower garden. She was active in the Lamont Hustlers 4-H Club. Frieda will be sadly missed and fondly remembered by her family and friends.

She is survived by her children: Rose Marie (Jerry) Coffey, rural Darlington; Glenn W. "Bud" (Joyce) Lancaster, Lamont;

Darlene Butler, LeRoy (Barb) Lancaster, all of Darlington; and Sandi (Ray) Whited, Warren, Ill.; 21 grandchildren; 46 great-grandchildren; 49 great-great-grandchildren; and her sister, Rose Ida Helm, Beloit. She was preceded in death by her husband, Glenn, on Feb. 26, 1990; three brothers: Oscar, John and Henry Wenger; a sister, Martha Lancaster; a granddaughter, Lisa Johnson, in 1997; and two great-grandsons, A.J. Gross and Shawn Walquist, both in 2006.

Funeral services were held April 18, 2007 at the Lamont United Methodist Church. The Rev. Craig Conklin officiated. Burial was at the Lamont Cemetery. The Erickson Funeral Home, Darlington, served the family.

www.ericksonfuneralhome.com

RJ 3-02

Richard J. Barth

DARLINGTON, Wis. — Richard J. Barth, 63, of Darlington died Monday, March 2, 1987, at home.

Services will be at 10:30 a.m. Thursday at the Immanuel United Church of Christ, with burial in Union Grove Cemetery, both in Darlington. Friends may call from 3 to 9 p.m. Wednesday at the Stell Funeral Home, Darlington.

Mr. Barth was born at Darlington. He farmed in the Darlington area until 1971; drove the Senior Citizen Bus for Lafayette County; was Lafayette County Coroner for 18 years; and promoted and drove in the stock car races at Darlington. He was a member of Immanuel Church and the Lafayette County Shamrock Club.

Surviving are his wife, the former Elizabeth E. Talbert; a son, Jon R. of Darlington; nine daughters, Jaclyn A., Juli M., Judi L. and Jennifer K., all of Darlington, Mrs. Dick (Jan M.) Hendrickson and Jodi L., both of Shullsburg, Jill A. Loken of Boyd, and Mrs. Dan (Jeri L.) Fabian and Joni R., both of Stillwater, Minn.; one granddaughter, and a sister, Matilda Lashock of Madison.

Dorothy Beer 9-9-87 AA

Dorothy (Mrs. Werner) Beer, the mother of a rural Argyle woman, died Sept. 1 at St. Clare Hospital in Monroe. She was 70.

Dorothy Alvina Schlaff was born April 18, 1917, in Staceyville, Iowa, the daughter of Bernardus and Mary (Ginsterblum) Schlaff.

She married Werner G. Beer April 19, 1938, at St. Victor's Catholic Church, Monroe. They lived in Monroe until they moved to Milledgeville, Ill., where her husband continued employment with Kraft Cheese Company. She was a factory worker.

Survivors include four children, Marilyn (Mrs. Tom) Daly, rural Argyle, Truman Beer, Wasilla, Alaska, Eugene, Edgerton, and Robert, Milledgeville; 15 grandchildren; four great-grandchildren; and three brothers, Arthur, Beaver Dam, Albert, Green Lake, and Walter, Bloomer.

She was preceded in death by her husband on Oct. 26, 1982.

She was a member of St. Mary's Catholic Church, Sterling, its Women's Guild, St. Dorothy's Altar Society of St. Vincent's Orphanage in Freeport, and the Senior Citizens group in Milledgeville.

Funeral services were held Friday at St. Victor's Catholic Church, Monroe, where she was currently a member, with Father Roger Nilles officiating. Burial was in Calvary Cemetery, Monroe.

RJ

Eldon Beau 8-24-06

Eldon A. Beau, 65, Prairie du Chien, formerly of Shullsburg, died Aug. 15, 2006 at Gunderson Lutheran Medical Center, La Crosse, following a short illness.

He was born Aug. 8, 1941 on a farm near Shullsburg, the son of Herman and Marjory (Averkamp) Beau. He married Linda Lyne on April 27, 1966. Eldon worked as a line setup person for Dura Automotive Industries, Stockton, Ill. Also during this time he owned and operated a truck farm called B & B Produce and Production, raising fruit and vegetables, from 1973 until his retirement in 2004, when he sold the business. He later moved to Prairie du Chien.

He is survived by three children: Mark A. Beau and Sharon L. Gates, both of Prairie du Chien; David H. Brickner, Bellevue, Neb.; four grandchildren; one great-grandchild; and nine siblings: Dick Beau, Bob Beau, Jim Beau, Joe Beau, Michael Beau, Ruth Beau, Nancy Gumz, Susie Brikkett and Maryjo Wehrspann.

Friends called Aug. 18 at the Thornburg-Hanson Funeral Home, Prairie du Chien, and Aug. 19 at the Furlong Funeral Home, Shullsburg. Burial was in Evergreen Cemetery, Shullsburg.

BK1-081