

Barbara Locke

Barbara Jean Francis Locke died in Florida and was buried at Union Grove cemetery, Darlington, Sunday, May 23, 1993. Rev. C. Phillip Burt, officiated.

The former Barbara Francis was born April 30, 1919 in Darlington. She attended Darlington schools and graduated from the Layton School of Art in Milwaukee. There she met Alan Locke, her future husband of 50 years. In 1942, she accompanied her husband to Army Posts to which he was assigned. After the service years and before leaving for Florida, her daughter: Melissa Francis Locke was born. In Florida a son, Alan Otis Locke was born, while living in Florida Barbara devoted her hours to water color paintings and other art forms. Antiques became another pursuit.

The Steil Camacho Funeral Home, Darlington, served the family.

Delbert Mayer

Delbert Mayer, 66, South Wayne, died Wednesday, May 19, 1993 in Meriter Hospital, Madison.

He was born March 23, 1927 in Monroe, the son of Clarence M. and Maudie (Kleckler) Mayer. He was a 1946 graduate of South Wayne High School. He married Virginia Bosshart Nov. 5, 1955 in Chicago, Ill.

Delbert served in the U.S. Army, entering service Sept. 26, 1950 at Milwaukee. He served six months overseas in Korea. He was a corporal with Headquarters Battery 10th Fields Artillery Battalion and received the Korean Service medal with one bronze combat star and the U.N. Service medal. He was discharged Sept. 19, 1952 at Camp Carson, Colorado.

He owned and operated Mayer's Gulf Service Station in South Wayne, worked for the village of South Wayne, worked for Wehinger Plumbing and Heating for many years and drove school bus for Black Hawk for 12 years.

He was a member of the Gratiot Veterans of Foreign Wars, past member of the South Wayne Fire Department, and a charter member of the Black Hawk Sportsmen's Club.

Survivors include: his wife, at home; four sons, Robert, Chicago, Ill., John, Cedarville, Ill., David, Avoca, and Stephen, Waunakee; a brother, Gerald Mayer, Monticello, and a half-brother, Jeffery Mayer, Winslow, Ill.; a sister, Mrs. Charles (Vivian) Gutshal, Rockford, Ill.; and six grandchildren.

Funeral services were Saturday, May 22, 1993, at Hanson Funeral Home, South Wayne. The Rev. Ruth Churchill of the United Methodist Church, South Wayne, officiated. Burial was in St. Joseph's Catholic Cemetery, Gratiot.

A memorial fund was established in his name.

Ralph Reynolds

Ralph W. Reynolds, 83, rural Argyle, died Tuesday, May 25, 1993, at Meriter Hospital, Madison.

Ralph was born in Waldwick Township, Iowa County, Jan. 5, 1910, the son of Ellis and Cora (Short) Reynolds. He married C. Evelyn Cline April 8, 1944 at the United Methodist Church, Monroe. She died April 27, 1990.

He lived and farmed in Waldwick Township until moving to Fayette Township in 1955, where he was a Sales Representative for Vigortone Feeds and the Pioneer Seed Companies up until the present time. He was a past member of the Waldwick Methodist church.

He is survived by a daughter, Susan Richard of Browntown, a son, Ellis (Kay) Reynolds, Roseville, Calif., a brother, Harvey (Isabelle) Reynolds, Greendale, and four grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held Friday, May 28, 1993, at 1:30 p.m. at the Darlington United Methodist Church, Darlington, with Pastor C. Phillip Burt officiating. Burial will be at Union Grove Cemetery, Darlington. Friends may call from 5 - 9 p.m., Thursday, May 27, at the Erickson Funeral Home in Darlington.

Active pallbearers are: Fabian Loeffelholz, Keith Siegenthaler, Bernard Rear, Paul Thompson, Kenneth Andrews and Clinton Anderson.

Honorary pallbearers are: George Mulcahy, Donald McKillip, David Olson, David Miller, Rolyn Smith and Larry Wolf.

L. Teutschmann

Lydia Teutschmann, 83, Shullsburg, died Friday, May 21, 1993 at the Lafayette Manor Nursing Home, Darlington.

She was born in Fayette Township, Lafayette County, Nov. 21, 1909, the daughter of Fred and Hanna (Christen) Ubersox. She was married May 17, 1926 in Monroe to Christen Teutschmann. He died in 1955. Lydia lived and farmed with her husband in Shullsburg Township until retiring into the city of Shullsburg in 1959.

Lydia was a member of the Centenary United Methodist Church in Shullsburg and Ada Circle of the United Methodist Women.

Lydia is survived by one daughter; Mary Lindsay, rural Darlington; four sons: Godfrey and Fred (Mary Louise) Teutschmann both of Darlington, Jake (Barbara) and Frank (Margaret) Teutschmann, both of Shullsburg; six brothers: Frank Ubersox, Darlington, Fred (Lois) Ubersox, John (Bernie) Ubersox, George (Doris) Ubersox, Charles (Lavonna) Ubersox, Robert (Bridget) Ubersox, all of Shullsburg; three sisters: Mrs. Freda Monahan and Mrs. Celia Schwartz, both of Shullsburg, and Mrs. Ann Herman of Galena, Ill.; 34 grandchildren; eight step-grandchildren; 69 great-grandchildren; 20 step, great-grandchildren and one great, great-grandson.

Funeral services were held Monday, May 24, 1993 at the Centenary United Methodist Church, Shullsburg. Pastor Carolyn M. Saunders officiated. Burial was at Evergreen Cemetery, Shullsburg. The O'Flaherty-Erickson Funeral Home, Shullsburg, was in charge of arrangements.

Pallbearers were: Mike Teutschmann, Jerry Lindsay, Chris Teutschmann, Tom Teutschmann, Dan Teutschmann and Dick Teutschmann.

14 Thursday, June 3, 1993

REPUBLICAN JOURNAL

Melvina Bollerud

Melvina Bollerud, 93, Mineral Point, died Monday, May 31, 1993, at the Mineral Point Care Center after an extended illness.

Melvina was born May 26, 1900, in Lafayette County, rural Argyle, the daughter of Michael and Rose Amelia (Johnson) Jacobson. She married Jul Dovre in 1919. They farmed in the rural Fayette area. Jul died in 1929. In 1931 Melvina married John Benjamin Bollerud and the couple made their home in Mineral Point where they farmed.

Melvina was active in Royal Neighbors, American Legion Auxiliary and the Hope Lutheran Church Ladies Aid.

Survivors include two daughters, Sylvia Baer, Camarillo, Calif. and Beverly (Dahl) Cushman, Mineral Point; stepchildren, John

W. (Pam) Bollerud, West Allis and Doris Galle, Mineral Point; and eight step-grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held at 2 p.m. Thursday, June 3, 1993, at the Hope Lutheran Church, Mineral Point. Reverend C. David Jacobson will officiate. Visitation will be from 4 - 8 p.m. Wednesday, June 2 at the Gorgen Funeral Home, Mineral Point and also from 1 - 2 p.m. Thursday at the church. In lieu of flowers, memorials may be given to Hope Lutheran Church or the Mineral Point Care Center.

Roy Carpenter

Roy J. Carpenter, 81, Darlington, died Friday, May 28, 1993, at Wm. S. Middleton Memorial Veterans Hospital, Madison.

He was born March 25, 1912 in Lafayette County, the son of John and Mary Agnes (Miller)

Carpenter. He was an Army veteran of World War II in the European theater. He married the former Regina H. Boyle April 8, 1940 in Nashua, Iowa. She died April 17, 1981.

Roy was a member of Holy Rosary Catholic Church, Darlington.

Survivors include four daughters: Sharon Natvig, Madison; Karen Peterson, Tucson, Ariz.; Carol Benson, Darlington; and Lori (Dr. Michael) Fisher, Dodgeville; four grandchildren; one great-grandson; two sisters: Lola (Milo) Coulthard and Edith Coulthard, both of Darlington.

Mass of Resurrection was held Tuesday, June 1, 1993 at Holy Rosary Catholic Church, Darlington. Father Tom Coyle officiated. Burial was at the church cemetery where full military honors were accorded by the Bates-O'Brien-Howe-Wiegel American Legion Post #214, Darlington. The Steil Camacho Funeral Home, Darlington, was in charge of arrangements.

Pallbearers were: Shawn Benson, John Carpenter, Ric Douglas, Gary Coulthard, Rich Coulthard and Merl Thomasson. Musicians were: Arlene Kluesner, Sara Lange and Diego Camacho, Jr.

Sherman Harris Sr.

Sherman Harris Sr., 85, Darlington, died Saturday, May 29, 1993, in Lafayette County Manor Nursing Home, Darlington.

He was born March 23, 1908 in Mineral Point, the son of William A. and Edith L. (Perkins) Harris. He married Pearl Arthur. She died in 1949.

Sherman was a self-employed well-driller in the Iowa County area.

Survivors include a son, Sherman E. Harris Jr., Monroe; three grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

A private family memorial service will be held at a later date.

Shriner-Neushwander Funeral Home, Monroe, is in charge of arrangements.

REPUBLICAN JOURNAL

12 Thursday, June 10, 1993

Walter M. Dahler

Walter M. Dahler, 85, Mineral Point, died Saturday, June 5, 1993, at the Mineral Point Care Center after an extended illness.

He was born July 27, 1907, in Fayette, the son of Michael and Annie Dahler. He was baptized and confirmed at the Swiss Immanuel Church in Darlington, which is now the United Church of Christ. He married the former Irene Hughes at the Methodist Parsonage in Galena, Ill. on Nov. 4, 1931. They both made cheese in the County Line Factory near Waldwick then moved to the North Survey Factory near Dodgeville. In 1944 they moved to Mineral Point where he worked at the Mineral Point Cheese Factory for 21 years until ill health caused him to retire.

Walter was a member of the United Church of Christ in Mineral Point since 1945.

He is survived by his wife; a daughter, Virginia (Don) Gumz, Madison; two grandchildren; and a sister, Aldina Gollrad, Darlington.

Funeral services were held Tuesday, June 8, 1993, at the Gorgen Funeral Home, Mineral Point. Reverend Beryl Melcher officiated. Interment was in Graceland Cemetery.

Mason Godfrey

Mason L. Godfrey, 80, died Saturday June 5, 1993, at University Hospital, Madison, following an accidental injury.

He was born Jan. 11, 1913, in Willow Springs Township, Lafayette County, the son of Allen and Mabel (Sleep) Godfrey. On June 22, 1938 he married Lois M. Paynter.

Mason was a farmer and, later, a feed salesman. He was also an active member of the First Methodist Church of Mineral Point. He loved all good music, was a charter member of the Iowa County Barber Shop Chorus, and was bass drummer of the City Band.

Mason is survived by his wife; three children, Paul (Suzanne) Tobert, Dodgeville, Phillip, Madison, and Judith (Jerry) Nichols, Castle Rock, Colo.; three grandchildren; two great-granddaughters; and a brother, Marvin, Darlington.

Funeral services were held Wednesday, June 9, 1993, in the United Methodist Church, Mineral Point. Reverend David Kellin officiated. Interment was in Graceland Cemetery. The Gorgen Funeral Home, Mineral Point was in charge of arrangements.

Gladys Golackson

Gladys Golackson, 84, died Friday, June 4, 1993 in Pleasant View Nursing Home, Monroe.

She was born Nov. 25, 1908, in Jordan Township, the daughter of Golack and Anna (Tollefson) Golackson.

Gladys was an aide at the old Deaconess Hospital and St. Clare Hospital, Monroe, until 1975. She was a member of the Jordan Lutheran Church.

She is survived by three half-sisters; Mrs. Walter (Mildred)

Meier, rural Argyle, Mrs. Edna Jackson, Woodford, Mrs. Ruth Dorneden, Gratiot; a brother, Edgar Golackson, Rockford, Ill.; and a half-brother, Milferd Golackson, Darlington.

Funeral services were held Tuesday, June 8, 1993, at Jordan Lutheran Church. The Reverend Tom Boll officiated. Burial was in the Jordan Lutheran Church Cemetery.

Mae V. Kundert

Mae V. Kundert, 96, Madison, died Tuesday, June 1, 1993, at a Madison area nursing home.

She was born March 25, 1897 in Monroe and had been a long-time Madison resident.

Survivors include six children: Frances (Bud) Burdick, Monona; Evelyn (Joseph) Angeloni, Ft. Lauderdale, Fla.; Robert Kundert, Madison; Russell (Donna) Lincicum, Madison; Laurel (Kenneth) Andrews, Darlington; and Ruth Anne Daley, Stoughton; 23 grandchildren and many great-grandchildren. Her husband, Franklin, preceded her in death.

Memorial services were held Friday, June 4, 1993 at the Gunderson Funeral Home.

Leo A. Pittz

Leo A. Pittz, 70, Mineral Point, died Friday, June 4, 1993 at the Mineral Point Care Center after a short illness.

He was born Aug. 2, 1922, the son of Will A. and Loretta (Palzkill) Pittz. He was a lifelong Mineral Point resident who worked as a farm laborer and as a handyman at the Iowa County Fairgrounds and St. Marys Church and School. Leo enjoyed fishing, playing cards, and being with people and helping them in any way that he could.

Leo is survived by two brothers, Bob (Marlene) Argyle, Clem (Marilyn), Madison; four sisters, Dorothy, Dubuque, Iowa, Pat (Cecil) Clayton, Belmont, Mary Massie and Genevieve (Kenneth) Warren, both of Rockford, Ill.