

Henry Weiss

Henry Weiss, 89, Darlington, died Thursday, July 22, 1993 at Lafayette Manor Nursing Home, Darlington.

Henry was born Sept. 28, 1903, in St. Gallen, Switzerland, the son of Jacob and Barbara Weiss. He grew up in Switzerland and settled in Darlington where he farmed in the Red Rock area for a number of years. Henry worked for the Thronson Construction Co. in Mount Horeb before becoming a well known rock layer, retiring in 1984.

On June 22, 1963, Henry married Alice Stalder Krahenbuhl at the Immanuel United Church of Christ, Darlington. He was a member of the Immanuel United Church of Christ in Darlington. He loved to play cards, his favorite games being Yass and Euchre.

Henry is survived by his wife, Alice, Darlington; four stepdaughters: Alice (Mrs. Eugene) Duerst, New Glarus; Clara (Mrs. Robert, Sr.) Long, Darlington; Bertha (Mrs. Verdeen) Vick, Blanchardville; Margaret (Mrs. Joseph) Ruppert, Darlington; four stepsons: Ernest (Pauline) Krahenbuhl, Darlington; Walter (Ruth) Krahenbuhl, Monroe; John (Kay) Krahenbuhl, Argyle; Benjamin (Karen) Krahenbuhl, Platteville; one brother: Arnold Weiss, Switzerland; 32 step-grandchildren and 43 step-great grandchildren.

Funeral services were held Sunday, July 25, 1993 at the Immanuel United Church of Christ, Darlington. The Rev. C. Phillip Burt of the Darlington United Methodist Church officiated. Burial was in Union Grove Cemetery, Darlington. Erickson Funeral Home, Darlington, was in charge of arrangements.

Pallbearers were: Stanley Krahenbuhl, Robert Long, Jr., Richard Mulcahy, Rick Duerst, Randy Krahenbuhl, Bryon Krahenbuhl and Kent Ruppert.

Albert E. Varley

Albert Everett Varley, 79, died Saturday, July 24, 1993 in Oconomowoc.

He was born June 5, 1914 in Waukesha and graduated from the University of Wisconsin-Madison with a degree in agriculture.

He married Doris Andrews of Darlington on June 5, 1943.

Survivors include his wife, Doris; a son Owen (Jean), Mukwonago; two granddaughters; and his mother-in-law, Caddie Andrews, Darlington.

20 Thursday, August 5, 1993

REPUBLICAN JOURNAL

Thurley Frontz

Thurley A. Frontz, 58, Cable, formerly of Darlington, died Thursday, July 29, 1993 at St. Mary's Hospital in Duluth, Minn.

She was born in Darlington on Feb. 6, 1935, the daughter of Albert and Winifred (Bell) Rowe. She graduated from Darlington High School. Thurley lived in Darlington before moving to Decatur, Ill. and most recently to Cable, where she was a waitress at Telemark Lodge.

Thurley is survived by her mother, Winifred Rowe, Monroe; three daughters: Marcia Drezutzler, South Beloit, Ill., Theresa (Mrs. James) Stratton, Knoxville, Tenn., Juanita (Mrs. Kurt) Cutler, Loves Park, Ill.; four sons: Stephen (Dawn), Monroe, James (Shari), South Beloit, Ill., Keith (Martha), Fairfax, Tenn., Richard (Anna), Monroe; one brother, Rodney (Jane) Rowe, Darlington; two sisters: Karley (Mrs. Bob) Woodward, Brodhead, Anita (Mrs. Floyd) Thornton, Evansville; and 21 grandchildren.

Funeral services were held Saturday, July 31, 1993 at the Erickson Funeral Home, Darlington. Pastor Stewart Dix, of the First Baptist Church, Darlington, officiated. Burial was in Union Grove Cemetery. The Erickson Funeral Home, Darlington, served the family.

Pallbearers were: Bill Jacobsen, Paul Jacobsen, Chris Saddler, Jeff Saddler, Rodney Skattum and Jim McNaughton.

Robert I. Helm

Robert I. Helm, 74, Davison, Mich., formerly of Darlington, died Tuesday, July 27, 1993, at McLaren Regional Medical Center, Flint, Mich.

Robert was born in Fayette Township July 7, 1919, the son of Matthew and Olive (Patch) Helm. He was married to Evelyn Scherwitz on Dec. 29, 1956 in Fort Atkinson. He lived in the Flint area since 1956 where he was an instructor for Mott College until his retirement in 1981.

He was a 50-year member of Evening Star Lodge #64 F. & A.M., Darlington and a past Patron of Wimodaughsis Chapter #93 Order of Eastern Star of Darlington.

Survivors include his wife, Evelyn, at home; two sons, Brent A., Flint, Mich; Gregg R. (Jill), Grayslake, Ill.; two brothers, Harry (Eileen), Darlington; Ralph (Lila), Mukwonago; one sister, Hazel Helm, Thiensville; and two granddaughters.

A memorial service will be held Saturday, Aug. 7, 1993, 1 p.m. at the Erickson Funeral Home, Darlington, with Reverend David Kellin officiating. Burial will be in Union Grove Cemetery, Darlington. Friends may call from 6 - 8 p.m., Friday, Aug. 6, at the Erickson Funeral Home, Darlington, where a Masonic service will be held at 8 p.m.

Memorials may be made to K T Education Foundation or Fayette United Methodist Church.

Norman Skinrood

Colonel Norman Arvid Skinrood, U.S. Army (Ret.), 81, Pensacola Fla., died Tuesday, July 27, 1993, at a local hospital.

Colonel Skinrood was born in Lamont on Sept. 18, 1911. He was graduated from Argyle High School. After attending Ferris Institute at Big Rapids, Mich., he entered the U.S. Military Academy at West Point, N.Y., graduating with the class of 1935. After his initial station at Ft. Monroe, Va., he served at military posts in Corregidor, New York, Boston, Okinawa, Ie Shima, Tokyo, and Yokahama. He attended the Command and General Staff College and was assigned to San Francisco. Afterward, he attended the Armed Forces College in Norfolk, Va., and later the U.S. War College in Carlisle, Penn. Following a two year assignment in Seattle, Wash., he spent four years at the Pentagon, three years with NATO forces in Naples, Italy, and a final two year tour at the Pentagon, retiring in 1965 after 30 years of service.

Among Colonel Skinrood's decorations were the Legion of Merit with Oak Leaf Cluster, the Commendation Medal, six battle stars and other awards. After retirement from the Army, Colonel Skinrood was engaged in real estate and investment business in northern Virginia. He furthered his education by earning a degree in business.

Survivors include his wife, Edith M. Skinrood, Pensacola, Fla.; three daughters, Linda Prossor, Seattle, Wash.; Lisa Root, Portland, Ore.; Stephanie Prichard, Indianapolis, Ind.; two sons, Norman Skinrood, Jr., Kansas City, Mo.; David Skinrood, Denver, Colo.; a brother, Alfred Skinrood, Wiota; 12 grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

Memorial services were conducted by Rev. Bob Mackey at Azalea Trace Wednesday, Aug. 4, 1993. Burial will be on Friday, Aug. 6, 1993, at Arlington National Cemetery following services in Old Chapel at Fort Myers with full military honors.

Cedar Hill Chapel, 1040 E. Nine Mile Rd., Pensacola, Fla. 32514, was in charge of arrangements.

REPUBLICAN JOURNAL

16 Thursday, August 12, 1993

Clarence Dorow

Clarence E. Dorow, 72, Darlington, died Saturday, Aug. 7, 1993 at his home following a courageous battle with cancer.

He was born in Franklin Township in Sauk County April 29, 1921, the son of Edward and Marian (Prouty) Dorow. Clarence graduated from Reedsburg High School in 1942. He was married April 11, 1945 at Zion's Lutheran Church in Sauk County to Unetta V. Licht.

Clarence lived in the Reedsburg area until 1951 when he moved to Darlington and worked as an artificial inseminator for Tri State Breeders until his retirement in 1983. After retiring, Clarence stayed active and began working for John Taylor's Greenhouse in Darlington up until his recent illness.

He was a member of Grace Lutheran Church in Darlington and a past member of its church council and the Fayette Sportsmen Club. He was a past member of the Fayette Snow Goers Club and board member of Darlington's Planning and Zoning Committee. He also belonged to the Lancaster Bowling Team and was an avid horseshoe pitcher. Clarence served in the army during World War II in a heavy artillery unit from 1942 - 1944.

Survivors include his wife Unetta at home; two sons, Gary (Janet) Dorow, Baraboo, and Dennis (Janice) Dorow, Wisconsin Dells; two daughters, Becky (Mrs.

Dusty) Thompson, rural Darlington; and Cindy (Mrs. Jerry) Balis, Janesville; three brothers, Henry (Lucille) Dorow and Phillip (Joyce) Dorow both of Wisconsin Dells, and Donald Dorow, Reedsburg; one sister, Evelyn (Mrs. Norman) Krey-Farrington, Colorado Springs, Colo.; and nine grandchildren.

Services were held Tuesday, Aug. 10, 1993, at Grace Lutheran Church, Darlington. Pastor Lauren R. Ley and Rev. Harvey N. Frye co-officiated. Burial was in Union Grove Cemetery, Darlington, where military graveside rites were accorded by Bates-O'Brien-Howe-Wiegel American Legion Post #214 of Darlington. The Erickson Funeral Home, Darlington, served the family.

Active pallbearers were: David Krey, Dean Dorow, Ronnie Dorow, Phillip Dorow, Jr., Brian Dorow and Sydney Dorow, Jr.

Honorary pallbearers were: John Taylor, Bert Tuescher, Paul Saalsaa, Paul Prine, Paul Bredeson, Danny Prine, Fritz Teutschmann, Irving Ruef and Scott Bryson.

Carl L. Engelke

Carl L. Engelke, 64, Janesville, formerly of Belmont, died Monday, Aug. 2, 1993, in Mercy Hospital, Janesville.

He was born Feb. 24, 1929 in Lafayette County, the son of Elmer and Marie (Von Glahn) Engelke. He had retired from the General Motors Plant in Janesville.

Survivors include a sister, Mildred Edwison, Livingston; and a brother, Elmer Engelke, Jr., Belvidere, Ill.

Graveside services were held Saturday, Aug. 7, 1993, at the Belmont Cemetery in Belmont.

The Bendorf Funeral Home, Platteville, was in charge of arrangements.

Gottlieb Kaempfer

Gottlieb Kaempfer, 80, Shullsburg, died Wednesday, Aug. 4, 1993, at St. Joseph Unit Mercy Health Center, Dubuque, Iowa.

Gottlieb was born March 23, 1913, in Darlington, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Gottlieb Kaempfer, Sr. He farmed in early life and worked in the local mines. He retired from the Eagle Picher Mine Co. in 1979. He was united in marriage to Clara Boelk at St. Paul's Lutheran church, Warren, Ill., on Jan. 16, 1939.

Survivors include his wife, Clara; a son George Kaempfer, Ft. Atkinson; and two daughters, Mrs. Fritz (Barbara) Werneke, Dubuque, Iowa; and Susan Kaempfer, Marvista, Calif.; four grandchildren; and two great-grandchildren.

Funeral services were held Sunday, Aug. 8, 1993, at St. Paul's Lutheran Church, Warren, Ill. Pastor Tina Koenig officiated. Burial was in Elmwood Cemetery, Warren, Ill.

Traci Stietz

Traci L. Stietz, 23, Gratiot, and her stillborn daughter, Leah

Katherine died unexpectedly from apparent complications in her pregnancy on Saturday, Aug. 7, 1993.

The former Traci L. Kaster was born in Cuba City on March 18, 1970, the daughter of Anthony and Kay (Kowalski) Kaster. She was married to Paul R. Stietz on Oct. 17, 1992, at St. Phillips Catholic Church, Highland. She graduated from Highland High School in 1988, and in 1990 from Southwest Technical School in Child Care and Development. She was a teacher at the Rainbow Child Care, Monroe, and previously at Kinder Castle, Dodgeville. Her interests include her family, children and playing volleyball.

Surviving are her husband, Paul; her parents, Anthony and Kay Kaster, Highland; three sisters, Deanna Rueckheim, Sauk City; Corinne and Jeanna Kaster, both of Highland; and a brother, Thomas Kaster, also of Highland; paternal grandmother, Elizabeth Kaster, Janesville; maternal grandparents, Ervin and Lucille Kowalski, Dickeyville; maternal great-grandmother, Luella Kowalski, Dickeyville; and Leah's paternal grandparents, Lavern and Marietta Stietz, Gratiot.

Mass of Resurrection was held Tuesday, Aug. 10, 1993, at St. Joseph's Catholic Church, Gratiot. Father Jerold Fitzpatrick and Father John Urben co-officiated. Burial was in St. Phillips Catholic Cemetery, Highland. The Steil Camacho Funeral Home, Darlington, was in charge of arrangements.

Pallbearers were: Joseph Kaster, Brad Kaster, Scott Kaster, Shelby Blindert, William Raisbeck and David Huxtable. Musicians were Holly Miller and Mark Dunn.

Leta Thompson

Mrs. Irving (Leta V.) Thompson, 92, Shullsburg, died Saturday, Aug. 7, 1993, at Finley Hospital, Dubuque, Iowa.

Leta was born Jan. 15, 1901 in Benton Township, the daughter of Barnard Fowler and Margaret E. Coates. She graduated from Benton High School and Platteville Normal and taught for many years in the Lafayette County school system. The love of her life was owning and operating the Jersey Acres Jersey dairy farms, a purebred Jersey dairy herd. She received many awards and was active in many dairy and farm programs until her retirement in 1991. She was a member of the Shullsburg Chapter #30 Eastern Star.

She was united in marriage to Charles Laity June 27, 1923. He died Jan. 15, 1954. She then married Irving Thompson, Shullsburg, Nov. 19, 1963 at St. Michael's Episcopal Mission, Shullsburg.

Survivors include her husband, Irving; a stepson, David (Betty) Thompson, Winnebago, Ill.; a brother, Harold Fowler, Platteville; and two sisters, Mrs. Daniel (Blanche) Nolan, Frazier Park, Calif. and Ferne Miller, Beloit.