

Alvin Krohn

Alvin W. Krohn, 86, Nekoosa, died Saturday, March 19, 1994, at Riverview Hospital, Wisconsin Rapids.

He was born Aug. 10, 1907, in Marshfield, to Wendel and Rosa Krohn. He married Caroline Kuelling June 7, 1932, in Shullsburg. He was a teacher and coach at Shullsburg from 1931-35, an assistant principal, teacher and coach at Elkhart Lake from 1935-39 and an administrator at Howards Grove Public School from 1939-44, at Belleville from 1944-46 and at Wauzeka from 1946-49. He also reorganized school districts at Hayward from 1949-53, at Wauzeka from 1953-55 and at Muscoda from 1955-60. From 1960-66 he served as superintendent of Nekoosa Public Schools.

Alvin was the first president and charter member of the Wisconsin Rapids Area Retired Educators Association, an honorary member of the Wisconsin Retired Educators Association, a member of the Wisconsin Association of School District Administrators-Centry Club and was listed in the Who's Who in American Education, Who's Who in the Middle West and in the Wisconsin Men of Distinction. He also was a member of Wisconsin Rapids Free and Accepted Masons Lodge 128 and ZOR Shrine, Madison.

Survivors include his wife; a son, Lee (Charlene), Nekoosa; two daughters, JoAnn (Philip) Groves, Viroqua; Sharon Mida, Greenfield; six grandchildren; and two great-grandchildren.

Services were held at the United Church of Christ. Burial was in Riverside Cemetery.

Dorothy Piquette

Mrs. Dorothy A. (Snow) Piquette, 85, Galena, Ill., died Friday, April 15, 1994, at Finley Hospital, Dubuque, Iowa.

She was born Feb. 14, 1909, at Platteville, the daughter of Charles and Genevieve Fawcett Snow. She was united in marriage to Charles Cletus Piquette June 30, 1927, at Platteville. He died April 30, 1976.

Dorothy was a member of St. Michael's Catholic Church, Galena, Ill. She spent most of her life in the Galena area.

Survivors include three daughters: Mrs. Joanne (James) Hillard, Galena, Ill.; Mrs. Patricia (Carl) Wubben, Dubuque, Iowa; Mrs. Barbara (James) Miller, Galena, Ill.; a son, James Piquette and Margery, Cobb; 12 grandchildren and 15 great-grandchildren.

Services were held Monday, April 18, 1994, at St. Michael's Catholic Church, Galena, with burial in the church cemetery. Pallbearers were: Mike Hillard, Dennis Place, Christopher Miller, Dave Thiltgen, Jeff DeWall and Terry Fleege.

The Furlong Funeral Chapel, Galena, was in charge of arrangements.

REPUBLICAN JOURNAL

14 Thursday, April 28, 1994

Gladys Hale

Gladys V. Hale, 73, Morgan Memorial Nursing Home, Stockton, former Warren, Ill., resident, died Wednesday, April 20, 1994, at Freeport Memorial Hospital, Freeport, Ill.

She was born April 2, 1921, in rural Warren, the daughter of Joseph and Lottie (Sigafus) McKee. She married Kenneth B. Hale, Feb. 13, 1942, at Freeport. He died May 18, 1988.

Gladys worked at Atwood Automotive, Stockton, Ill., for many years. She was a member of the American Legion Auxiliary of Warren.

Survivors include two daughters, Mrs. Robert (Sharon) Nicklaus, Freeport; Pamela Krick, South Wayne; a son, Jeffrey, Freeport; two brothers, Golden McKee, Stockton; Cletus McKee, Warren; six sisters, Loretta Eicholtz, Alberta Maddrell and Mrs. Chris (Viola) Pax, all of Warren; Mrs. Nolan (Pauline) Feltmeyer and Jeanette Vanoski, both of Stockton; Mae Harris, Rockford, Ill.; 10 grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

Funeral services were held Saturday, April 23, 1994, at Bartell-Leamon Funeral Home, Warren. The Rev. Jean Bush of Warren United Methodist Church officiated. Burial was in Elmwood Cemetery, Warren.

A memorial was established in her name.

Neuenschwander

Arnold A. Neuenschwander, 81, Monroe, died Friday, April 22, 1994, at Monroe Clinic Hospital.

He was born Oct. 19, 1912, the son of Fred and Barbara (Kundert)

Neuenschwander. He was married to Mary Richter, June 18, 1982. His first wife, Gwendolyn Taft, died Aug. 10, 1978.

Arnold farmed in the Winslow, Ill. area and then was a custodian at the Monroe High School until his retirement.

Survivors include his wife, Mary, Monroe; a son Robert Neuenschwander, Brownstown; three daughters, Mrs. Virgil (Janice) Wire, Winslow, Ill.; Judith Neuenschwander, Lake Delton; Mrs. Robert (JoAnn) Frie, Brodhead; a step-son, Burdette Richter, Beloit; four step-daughters, Mrs. Robert (Patricia) Crist, Darlington; Mrs. Roscoe (LaRonda) Winters, Darlington; Mrs. John (Phyllis) Niffenegger, Buffalo, Wyo.; Mrs. Michael (June) Burbach, Darlington; a sister, Mrs. Fay (Edna) Weckerly, Monroe; 27 grandchildren and 22 great-grandchildren.

Funeral services were held Tuesday, April 26, 1994, at the Shriner-Neuenschwander Funeral Home, Monroe. Rev. Ethan Larson of Zion United Methodist Church, Juda, officiated. Burial was in Mt. Pleasant Cemetery, Winslow, Ill.

Austin Runde

Austin W. Runde, 76, Batavia, Ill., died Friday, April 22, 1994, at Edward Hines, Jr. Veterans Hospital in Hines, Ill.

He was born April 4, 1918, in Hazel Green, the son of Sylvester "Doc" and Josephine (Doyle) Runde. He was united in marriage to Joan P. Loehnis Dec. 3, 1950, in Madison.

Austin spent his formative years in southeastern Wisconsin. He became a teacher after graduating from the State Teachers College in Platteville. He taught in a one room rural grade school in Wisconsin until entering the U.S. Army during World War II. He served in the European Campaign. When he returned to the United States, he joined the Army Reserve, where he obtained the rank of Captain. He started the Runde Brothers Construction Company with his brother, Alvin Runde.

He was a gifted artist. His talents included wood carvings, metal workings and lapidary. He enjoyed home remodeling, antique collecting and garage sales. He was an avid fisherman and enjoyed the out-of-doors. He was a foster grandfather to over 100 children in the Fox Valley area. He was a member of the Barbed Wire Collectors of America and the Fox Valley Rock and Mineral Society, of which he served as a past president. He was a guest editor for the Barbed Wire Gazette, which is printed in Texas.

Survivors include his wife, Joan P. Runde; two daughters, Cyd Runde, Batavia; Lisa Runde, San Jose, Calif.; four sons, Damian (Sally) Runde, Montgomery, Ill.; Eric (Leslie) Runde, Elburn; Alan Runde, Batavia; Neil (Christie) Runde, San Jose, Calif.; ten grandchildren; a brother, David (Mariam) Runde, Platteville; four sisters, Ethel (Charles) Connolly and Helen (Robert) McDermott, both of Darlington; Eileen (Hugh) Jones, Middleton; Lois (Jerry) Jerikovec, Nashville, Tenn.; and a sister-in-law, Kathleen Runde, Sparta.

Funeral services were held Tuesday, April 26, 1994, at the Yurs-Peterson Funeral Home, Batavia, Ill. The Rev. Steve Miller officiated. Interment was at the East Batavia Cemetery.

In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made to his family for the completion of his works in writing.

Helen Schmid

Helen M. Schmid, 87, Monroe, died Sunday, April 24, 1994 at Pleasant View Nursing Home, Monroe.

She was born Jan. 31, 1907, in Darlington, the daughter of Jacob and Marie (Rufenacht) Tuescher. She married August A. Schmid Dec. 20, 1928. He died Aug. 5, 1990.

Helen was a member of St. John's United Church of Christ and it's Hanna Circle; the Monroe Swiss Club and the Garden Club of Monroe.

Survivors include a son, William Schmid, Monroe; a daughter, Mrs. David (Helen) Thibodeau, Marinette; two brothers, Albert Tuescher, Darlington; John Tuescher Sr., Monroe; two sisters, Mrs. Gertrude Milne, Citrus Heights, Calif.; Mrs. David (Margaret) Kelly, Escondido, Calif.; 11 grandchildren and 11 great-grandchildren.

Funeral services were held Wednesday, April 27, 1994, at St.

John's United Church of Christ, Monroe. Rev. William T. Mike Heath officiated. Burial was in Greenwood Cemetery, Monroe. The Shriner-Neuenschwander Funeral Home, Monroe, was in charge of arrangements.

A memorial fund has been established for St. John's United Church of Christ.

Glen Westerman

Glen "Babe" Westerman, 89, Darlington, died Monday, April 25, 1994, at Memorial Hospital of Lafayette County.

He was born in Darlington, Sept. 18, 1904, the son of Charles W. and Rose E. (McGuire) Westerman. He was married to the former Ruth C. Smith Sept. 25, 1934, at Holy Rosary Catholic Church, Darlington.

Glen worked as a mechanic for the Lafayette County Highway Department for 41 years until his retirement in 1970. He enjoyed traveling all of his life, especially after his retirement. He also enjoyed his grandchildren and great-grandchildren. He was a lifetime member of Holy Rosary Catholic Church, Darlington.

Survivors include his wife, Ruth, Darlington; a son, Charles (Maxine) Westerman, Darlington; five grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren.

Mass of Resurrection was held Wednesday, April 27, 1994, at Holy Rosary Catholic Church, Darlington. Father Tom Coyle officiated. Burial was at the church cemetery. Pallbearers were: Rich Westerman, Rodney Westerman, Ron Flesher, Robert Westerman, Ronald Westerman and Rick Mosley. Musicians were: Arlene Kluesner, Sara Lange and Diego Camacho, Jr.

The Steil Camacho Funeral Home, Darlington, served the family.

16 Thursday, May 5, 1994

REPUBLICAN JOURNAL

Paul Andrews

Paul David Andrews, 78, Colorado Springs, Colo., died April 21, 1994 at a Colorado Springs hospital.

He was born Feb. 26, 1916, in Wiota, the son of Ralph and Mabel (McManes) Andrews. He graduated from Darlington High School in 1934. He was married March 16, 1944, in Darlington to Juanita A. Arnsmeier. They recently celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary.

Paul served in the Army from 1941 to 1943 and earned the American Defense Ribbon, the Asiatic Pacific Campaign medal and the Good Conduct Medal. He lived in Madison after service at Truax Field until he was transferred to the Air Force Academy in Colorado Springs, Colo. He was involved in the construction of the REA lines in Lafayette County.

He was a member of many organizations, including Masonic Lodge 33, where he served as a master Mason, the Air Force Quarterback Club and the American Federation of Government Employees. He was a life member of the Disabled American Veterans and the Air Force Academy Athletic Association.

Survivors include his wife, Juanita; two daughters, Linda Weber, Steamboat Springs, Colo.; Lona Ladrow, Colorado Springs; two brothers, Ralph (Sherry), Green Bay; Kenneth (Laural), Darlington; three sisters, Phyllis Curry, Darlington; Mavis (George) Steil, Janesville; Virginia (Richard) Creamer, Monroe; and five grandsons.

Funeral services were held Friday, April 29, 1994, at Vista Grande Community Church of Christ. Burial was at Fort Logan National Cemetery, Denver, Colo.

Lenice M. Boll

Lenice M. Boll, 88, Platteville, died Thursday, April 28, 1994, at the Southwest Health Center, Platteville.

She was born in Platteville, Jan. 18, 1906, the daughter of Herman and Meldia Kenny Boll. She received her early education at the Platteville Normal Training School and graduated from Platteville Normal School in 1924 with a teaching certificate. She received her degree in elementary education from the Platteville Teachers College in 1934 and took additional classes from the Community College of Freeport, Ill. and the University of Illinois.

Lenice taught at the Lime Ridge School near Baraboo, the Lannon School near Milwaukee and at Benton. For 37 years she taught first grade at Warren, Ill., until retiring in 1972.

She was a life-long member of the First English Lutheran Church, Platteville. She was also a member of the Lutheran Church Women and the Packet Group. In addition she was also a member of the Jamison Museum Association and the Grant County Historical Society. Lenice was known to her family as the "Family Poet." She wrote a Lenny Original for each family member on their birthday.

Survivors include a sister, Agnes Boll, a sister-in-law, Marion Boll, both of Platteville; nephews, great nephews and nieces; two great-great nephews; and two very special friends, Chuck and Darlene Jentz, Platteville.

Funeral services were held Sunday, May 1, 1994, at the First English Lutheran Church, Platteville. Rev. Dr. David J. Berggren and Rev. Thomas E. Boll officiated. Burial was in the Greenwood Cemetery, Platteville.

The Mergen-Boll Funeral Home, Platteville, was in charge of arrangements.

A Lenice M. Boll Memorial Fund has been established.

Shirley Hirsbrunner

Shirley J. Hirsbrunner, 55, rural Darlington, died Sunday, May 1, 1994, at the Lafayette Manor Nursing Home in Darlington.

She was born in Darlington, July 11, 1938, the daughter of Stanley and Mary Chapman Wonders. She graduated from Darlington High School in 1956 and attended Platteville University for two years. On Dec. 29, 1962,