

Memorial services were held Tuesday, July 12, 1994, at the Gorgen Funeral Home, Mineral Point.

Glenn Teasdale

Glenn B. Teasdale, 75, Cuba City, formerly of Shullsburg, died Wednesday, July 6, 1994, at the Southwest Health Center, Platteville.

Glenn was born July 13, 1918, at Shullsburg, the son of Raymond and Mary Glindinning Teasdale. He spent all of his life on the family farm, retiring in 1978. He loved to travel and enjoyed baseball games and a good game of cards.

Glenn was united in marriage to Esther M. Treptow Dec. 23, 1976, at LaValle. She survives. Also surviving are a brother, Donald (Barbara) Teasdale, Cuba City and a sister, Mrs. Mavis (James) King, Shullsburg.

Funeral services were held Monday, July 11, 1994 at the Furlong Funeral Home, Shullsburg. Pastor Don Forss of the Apostles Lutheran Church, Platteville, officiated. Burial was in Evergreen Cemetery, Shullsburg. Pallbearers were Dennis Redfearn, Brett Gill, Randy Gill, Larry Teasdale, Chad Teasdale and Tim Burns.

Ted Monson

Theodore H. "Ted" Monson, 96, Darlington, died Tuesday, July 12, 1994, at the Memorial Hospital of Lafayette County, Darlington.

He was born Nov. 18, 1897, in Argyle Township, the son of Oley and Clara (Gilberston) Monson. Ted was married to Ona G. Hanson April 2, 1924, at the East Wiota Lutheran Church. They celebrated their 70th wedding anniversary this past April.

Ted lived and farmed in the Wiota Township before moving into Darlington in 1949. He did carpentry work for a number of years around the Darlington area and later worked as a custodian for the Citizen's National Bank in Darlington, retiring in 1975.

He was a member of the Wiota Lutheran Church and a past officer of its church council. Ted loved to fish in the Darlington area and also in Canada.

He is survived by his wife, Ona, Darlington; two daughters, Jean Klussendorf, Steven Point; Marjorie Monson, New Jersey; three sons, Donald K. (Helen) Monson, Wiota; Robert O. (Joanne) Monson, Janesville; Roger H. (Merion) Monson, Darlington; 12 held Thursday, July 14, 1994, at 2 p.m. at the Wiota Lutheran Church with Pastor Lisa L. Nelson officiating. Burial will be in the East Wiota Lutheran Church cemetery. Pallbearers are: Steven Monson, Dean Monson, Bruce Monson, Kevin Monson, Kurt Klussendorf and Dave Sutherland.

The Erickson Funeral Home, Darlington, served the family.

16 Thursday, July 21, 1994

REPUBLICAN JOURNAL

Patricia Doyle

Patricia A. Doyle, 45, died Saturday, July 16, 1994, with HospiceCare in Oregon, after a long battle with cancer.

She was born Sept. 8, 1948, in Hazel Green and grew up in the Shullsburg area. She graduated high school from St. Clara Academy in Sinsinawa in 1966, received a bachelor of arts degree in communication arts from UW-Madison in 1971, a master of science in education degree in guidance and counseling from UW-Platteville in 1974, and a master of education degree in english and reading from UW-Platteville in 1981.

Since 1988, Patricia was the assistant to the chancellor for Affirmative Action and Women's Services at the University of Wisconsin-Platteville. She had been employed at UW-Platteville since 1981 where she had also held the positions of Affirmative Action Officer, Women's Center Director and Language Arts Coordinator. She had previously been employed as a guidance counselor at the Monticello Public Schools, the Galena, Ill. Public Schools and the Elizabeth, Ill. Public Schools. She was also a field director for the Green Hills Council of Girl Scouts in Freeport, Ill.

While employed at UW-Platteville, she had served as a member of several committees, boards and task forces. She was a member of the following professional organizations: National Association for Women Deans, Administrators and Counselors; American Association for Affirmative Action; American Association for Higher Education; and Council of Collegiate Women Athletic Administrators.

Survivors include her mother and stepfather, Ethel and Dr. Don Schulz, Darlington; and a stepbrother, Larry (Beth), Oregon.

Mass of Resurrection was held

Hoppenjan, Patrick Martin, Kathleen Kelley, Al Thompson, Jeff Abelt, Jan Hays, Jody Halgren, Julie McGowan, Sandy Spofford and Lee Halgren. Active pallbearers were: Catherine Farrey, David Farrey, Rick Endicott, Ellen Farrey-Jankowski, Nancy Ellis and Jane Myers. Musicians were Todd Richmond, Sara Lange, Arlene Kluesner and Susan Berggren.

In lieu of flowers, Pat had requested that donations be made to the Patricia A. Doyle Memorial Trust Fund to be used for scholarships and charitable purposes.

Forrest Ingram

Forrest R. Ingram, 88, Apple River, Ill., died Wednesday, July 13, 1994, in the Monroe Clinic Hospital, Monroe.

He was born July 11, 1906, in Hazel Green, the son of Richard Roscoe and Retta (Pearc) Ingram. He married Ida D. Fiedler on Feb. 2, 1935, in Galena, Ill.

Forrest was a teacher and former breeder of Guernsey cattle for more than 60 years. He attended schools at Warren, Ill., Benton and Hazel Green. He graduated from Hazel Green High School and attended the State Normal School in Platteville. He taught rural school for six years before going into farming with his father.

He was superintendent of the Sunday school and lay leader of the Apple River Methodist Church for many years. He was one of the first school board members of the Community Unit School Dist. #205, Warren, Ill. He was secretary of the Jo Daviess County Farm Bureau for nearly 20 years and was a leader in the local Guernsey Cattle Circle, being a director of the Illinois Guernsey Association for many years.

Survivors include his wife, Ida, Apple River; a daughter, Corinne K. (Ralph) Grinde, Cat Spring, Texas; three sons, Delmar Loren (Donna) Ingram, Harvard, Ill.; Forrest Duane (MaryJo) Ingram, Rockford, Ill.; Terrence N. (Nancy) Ingram, Apple River; a sister, Olive Cashman, Warren, Ill.; and six grandchildren.

Funeral services were held Saturday, July 16, 1994, at the First Presbyterian Church of Apple River. Rev. Janice Gehlsen officiated. Burial was in the Hazel Green Cemetery.

Memorials may be made to the Illinois Guernsey Association and to the First Presbyterian Church.

The Bartell-Leamon Funeral

Helen Schwebach

Helen M. Schwebach, 77, Stevens Point, died Monday, July 11, 1994, at her home following a lengthy illness.

She was born Nov. 7, 1916, in Dunbarton, the daughter of the late Timothy and Viola (Thomas) Moore. She attended schools in Shullsburg, graduating from high school there. She then attended Wisconsin State Teachers College, Stevens Point, graduating in 1940 with a degree in home economics.

Helen married Joseph Schwebach on Oct. 12, 1940, at St. Stephen Catholic Church. He died June 23, 1976. After 24 years as a home economics and science teacher at P.J. Jacobs High School and Stevens Point Area Senior High, she retired.

She was a member of the National Association of Retired Teachers, St. Stephen Catholic Church and its Altar Society. She enjoyed crafts, sewing and traveling.

Survivors include a daughter, JoAnne (William) O'Gara, Eau Claire; two sons, Joseph (Mary), Eau Claire; Timothy (Jill), Plover; nine grandchildren; a great-granddaughter; a brother, Arnold (Olive) Moore, Shullsburg; and two sisters, Zola Blackburn and Constance (Arden) Gensler, both of Shullsburg.

Funeral services were held Thursday, July 14, 1994, at St. Stephen Catholic Church. Rev. Daniel Kiedinger officiated. Burial was in the parish cemetery.

Memorials have been established to Hospice of Portage County and St. Stephen Catholic Church.

Esther Teasdale

Esther H. Teasdale, 84, Cuba City, died Tuesday, July 19, 1994, at Southwest Health Care Center, Cuba City.

She was born Sept. 3, 1909, in Lafayette County, daughter of Joseph and Sarah (Moody) Huntington. She graduated from Darlington High School, attended Milwaukee Teachers Institute and taught at Willowdale Elementary School, Darlington, for eight years. She married Merlin Teasdale Feb. 18, 1937, at Darlington. They farmed in the Darlington and Belmont areas before retiring and moving to Cuba City. Mr. Teasdale died Feb. 14, 1988.

Survivors include a son, Max, Morton, Ill.; three daughters, Mary, services will be held at 1 p.m., Friday, July 22, 1994, at the Cuba City United Methodist Church. Burial will be in Union Grove Cemetery, Darlington.

Henry Thompson

Henry Irving Thompson, 85, Shullsburg, died Thursday, July 14, 1994, at Finley Hospital, Dubuque, Iowa.

He was born Aug. 16, 1908, at Shullsburg, the son of Harry A. and Clara L. Martin Thompson. He was united in marriage to Mildred Jackson. She died July 5, 1955. He married Leta Fowler Laity Nov. 19, 1963. She died Aug. 7, 1993.

Irv spent all his life in the area as a third generation funeral director until his retirement. He was a founding member of the South West Wisconsin Funeral Directors Association and served as president, vice president and delegate to the National and State Funeral Directors Association. He was also a 57-year member of the Masonic Order in Shullsburg.

Survivors include a son, David (Betty) Thompson, Winnebago, Ill.; four grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

Funeral services were held Saturday, July 16, 1994, at the Furlong Haudenshield Thompson Funeral Home, Shullsburg. Burial was in Evergreen Cemetery, Shullsburg. Pallbearers were: Howard Richards, Bruce Russell, James Thompson, Ron Thompson, James King and Don MacNaughton.

Alice Weygant

Alice M. Weygant, 67, Platteville, died Tuesday, July 12, 1994, at the Southwest Health Center, Platteville, as the result of an automobile accident.

She was born June 14, 1927, at Hazel Green, the daughter of William and Iva Champion Hocking. On Nov. 7, 1947, she was united in marriage to Melvin Benson. He died April 3, 1955. On April 7, 1957, she married Richard Weygant. They have made their home in Platteville for the past 33 years.

Alice had owned and operated AW Ceramics for the past 18 years and has taught ceramics at Parkview Terrace Nursing Home.

She was a member of the United Methodist Church in Platteville and the UAW Local 94 Retirees Association. In addition to her family, Alice enjoyed ceramics, Weygant-Berg, Woodbury, Minn.; Linda (Rick) Solberg, Ruth, Nev.; two sons, Dennis (Laura) Benson, Dodgeville; Mike Weygant, Atlanta, Ga.; her mother, Iva Champion Hocking, Platteville; 10 grandchildren; five step-grandchildren; three sisters, Beth Schreck, Colorado Springs, Colo.; Eileen (Francis) Leitzinger, Shullsburg; Barbara (Ronald) Haugen, Dubuque, Iowa; and three brothers, William Hocking, Gratiot; Edward Hocking, Mineral Point and Glen Hocking, Dodgeville.

Funeral services were held Saturday, July 16, 1994, at the United Methodist Church in Platteville. The Rev. Russ May officiated. Burial was in the Greenwood Cemetery, Platteville.

The Mergen-Boll Funeral Home served the family.

Lester Willborn

Lester Willborn, 70, Hollandale, died Sunday, July 17, 1994, at Memorial Hospital of Iowa County, Dodgeville, following a battle with cancer.

He was born in Mineral Point, Dec. 23, 1923, the son of Ernst and Paulina (Sturzenger) Willborn. He graduated from Argyle High School in 1941. On July 20, 1949, he married Bertha Bruehlman at the Argyle Lutheran Church. He lived and made cheese in the Adamsville and Moscow Center Cheese Factories and also in the Hollandale area from 1952 until 1977. He then worked for Zim's Cheese and later Mid America Cheese Corporation, retiring in 1993.

Lester was a member of the VFW Post #5274 of Platteville. He was a veteran of World War II, where he served in the Navy from 1942 until 1946. Lester won several cheesemaking awards, some of which include a second place in the World's National Cheese Contest in 1972 and the Governor's Sweepstakes Award for wheel swiss at the 1968 Wisconsin State Fair.

Survivors include his wife, at home; a son, Steven (Elizabeth) Willborn, Lincoln, Neb.; two daughters, Karen (Mrs. Neil) Bogenschneider, Spring Green; Pamela (Mrs. James) Colson, Blanchardville; five brothers, Ernest Willborn, Madison; Rudy Willborn, Darlington; William (Grace) Willborn, Blanchardville; Herman Willborn, Argyle; John (Bobbi) Willborn, Daleyville; five sisters, Hulda (Mrs. Grant) Disrud, Alice Gerber, both of Platteville;