Norma Burgess

Norma Burgess, 65, Eau Claire, formerly of Darlington, died Friday, Sept. 9, 1994, at her home in Eau Claire.

She was born Dec. 27, 1928, on the home farm near Shullsburg, the daughter of Henry and Marie (Wiech) Burgess.

After graduating from Darlington High School and Midwest Bible and Missionary Institute in St. Louis, Mo., she was employed by Scripture Press in the Chicago-Wheaton, Ill. area. In 1967 she moved, with her sister Marilyn, to Eau Claire, where she worked as a bookkeeper for The Boston Store from 1967 to 1982. Later she worked for HVAC in Elk Mound until retirement in 1992.

The center of Norma's life was her relationship with Jesus Christ, Christian service and worship were central to everyday activities. In each church she attended she served as a Sunday school teacher and leader of the girls club (AWANA and Pioneer Girls).

She enjoyed the play aspects of her life; both as a spectator (basketball and football) and a participant (softball and bowling). Camping and fishing were very special to her. She enjoyed trips to Alaska, with her parents, as well as Columbia, South America, the Holy Land, Egypt and Switzerland with her sister, Marilyn.

During the summer of 1992 she experienced diminishing eyesight. In January 1993 she was diagnosed as having cancer of the lungs and bone.

She is survived by her father, Henry Burgess, Darlington; a brother, Robert (Rose) Burgess, Shullsburg; and a sister, Marilyn
