

Shullsburg. Mass of Resurrection was held Saturday, Oct. 22, 1994, at Holy Rosary Catholic Church, Darlington. Father Tom Coyle officiated. Burial was at the church cemetery. Pallbearers were: Jamie, Jeff and Tony Bennett, Dick Jacobson, Ron Lee and Tim Mathews. Musicians were Arlene Kluesner, Sara Lange and Diego Camacho, Jr.

The Steil Camacho Funeral Home, Darlington, served the family.

Agnes Troy

Agnes Marie Troy, 101, Loves Park, Ill., formerly of Darlington, died Oct. 17, 1994, at Loves Park, Ill.

She was born June 11, 1893, the daughter of Will and Carrie Doering, Kingsley, Lafayette County. She married Raymond Troy.

Agnes was a past member of the Darlington United Methodist Church.

She is survived by a son, Homer, Loves Park, Ill.; a granddaughter; a step-grandson and five step-great-grandchildren, all of Loves Park.

Burial was in Union Grove Cemetery, Darlington, with Pastor Philip Burt officiating.

18 Thursday, November 3, 1994

REPUBLICAN JOURNAL

Alma Eastwood

Alma B. Eastwood, 82, Rockford, Ill, died Thursday, Oct. 27, 1994, in Swedish American Hospital, after a lengthy illness.

She was born March 6, 1912, in Belmont, the daughter of Harvey T. and Lena (Speth) Rowe. She had lived in Rockford since 1928, coming from Belmont. She was united in marriage with Eugene L. Eastwood in Galena, Ill, Aug. 23, 1928. He died May 1, 1941.

Alma was a manager at Camp Grant Post exchange and then managed the exchange in the POW camp. She also managed the officer's exchange until it closed in May 1946. She then worked at Amerock Corp., retiring after 26 years.

She was a member of Trinity Lutheran Church.

Survivors include a daughter, Karleen (Alan) Revell, Byron, Ill.; a daughter-in-law, Arlene Eastwood, Dundee, Ill.; seven grandchildren; four great-grandchildren; a sister, Helen Willi, Darlington; and a brother, Charles Rowe, Belmont.

Services were held Monday, Oct. 31, 1994, at Fitzgerald and Son Funeral Home, Ltd., Rockton

Ave., Rockford, Ill. Pastor Jay Quinn officiated. Burial was in Belmont Cemetery. A memorial service was held Monday, Oct. 31, in Peace Lutheran Church, Belmont.

Cecelia Howe

Cecelia Howe, 94, Janesville, died Sept. 20, 1994.

She was born in Darlington, Nov. 14, 1899, the daughter of Richard, Sr. and Bertha Howe.

Cecelia taught social studies at Janesville High School for 40 years, retiring in 1965. Her career included a year in England from 1939-40, as an exchange teacher. The day she arrived was the day England declared war on Germany.

She received bachelor's and master's degrees from the University of Wisconsin-Madison.

She had a long record of community service, including serving as president of the Janesville chapters of the League of Women Voters and the American Association of University Women. She was an active volunteer in the Mercy Hospital Women's Auxiliary. Her dedication was recognized in 1976 when she was named a Woman of Distinction in Janesville.

Most recently, she pledged $10,000 to the Janesville Public Library Foundation fund drive. In 1993, she established two $1,000 scholarships to be given annually to graduating Craig High School students who plan to become teachers.

Lela Linder

Lela D. Linder, Platteville, died Monday, Oct. 24, 1994, at the Southwest Health Center, Platteville.

She was born in Platteville, the daughter of Freidrich and Hermina Nutzhorn Rotzoll. She attended the Platteville Schools and St. Luke's Nursing School in Chicago, Ill. Lela worked as a nurse at the Boscobel Hospital. It was while she was in Boscobel that she met her husband, Max Linder. Lela and Max were united in marriage on Oct. 31, 1937.

From 1945 until retiring in 1967, Lela and Max worked side by side at the Log Cabin Grocery Store in Platteville, which they owned and operated. Max died in 1970. Lela then worked at the UW-Platteville Student Center Bookstore and was a volunteer driver for the Grant County Department of Social Services. She was also a tour guide for the Rollo Jamison Museum.

Survivors include a daughter, Gail (Wesly) Kopp, Platteville; two sons, Merl (Rosemarie) Linder, Albert Lea, Minn.; Alan (Christine)

Linder, Waukesha; six grandchildren; two great-grandchildren; two sisters, Etta Farfan-Rotzoll, Lima, Peru, South America; Alice (Vernon) Beckman, Bella Vista, Ark.; a brother, Clifford Rotzoll, Darlington; two sister-in-laws, Berta Baumer-Linder, Schmerikon, Switzerland; and Rosa Linder-Britt, Walenstadtberg, Switzerland.

Funeral services were held Friday, Oct. 28, 1994, at the United Methodist Church in Platteville. The Rev. Susan May officiated. Burial was in Greenwood Cemetery.

The Mergen-Boll Funeral Home, Platteville, served the family.

Karin M. Olson

Karin Metelmann Olson, 38, died Friday, Oct. 21, 1994, at Overlake Hospital, Bellevue, Wash., after a six-year battle with breast cancer.

Born in Oslo, Norway, the daughter of Hans P. and Inger Metelmann, Karin started with a folk dancing group at the age of six. As a teenager she traveled with this group to the United States, where she participated in folk dancing festivals in Stoughton. After attending the Schou Institute of Engineering in Oslo for two years, she returned to Wisconsin where she enrolled in UW-Madison in 1977.

She received her degree in electrical engineering in 1980 and in April of the same year married Kim D. Olson, son of Dr. and Mrs. Lyle Olson, Darlington. After their marriage Kim and Karin lived in LaCrosse and in the Minneapolis area. In 1988 they moved to Washington state where Karin worked as an engineer with the Siemens Company.

Survivors include her husband, Kim, daughters, Elisabeth and Kristina, Redmond, Wash.; her parents, Hans P. and Inger Metelmann; a brother Hans F., Naskov, Denmark; and a sister, Bente Jones, Aberdeen, Scotland.

Memorial services were conducted by Rev. Dennis Andersen, former pastor of Grace Lutheran Church, Darlington, at the Green Sunset Hills Chapel, Bellevue, Wash. Music for the memorial service was provided by Kirsten Olson, sister of Kim.

Memorials may be directed to the American Cancer Society.

REPUBLICAN JOURNAL

Olive Rose Amenda

Rose Amenda, 78, Calamine, died Sunday, Nov. 6, 1994, at her home.

She was born in Belmont, Oct. 10, 1916, the daughter of William and Frances (Gray) Amenda.

Rose lived in Calamine all of her life. She worked at Burgess Battery in Mineral Point for 22 years, retiring in 1969.

She is survived by two sisters, Beatrice Peterson, Mineral Point; and Mary Amenda, Calamine.

Funeral services were held Wednesday, Nov. 9, 1994, at the Erickson Funeral Home, Darlington. Silvia Rosenthal, Platteville, officiated. Burial was in the Belmont Cemetery. Pallbearers were: Ken Johnson, Jim Acherman, Connie Weaver, Gary White, Neil Jacobsen and David Jacobsen.

Rebecca Gehl

Rebecca Lynn Gehl, 13, Retreat, Wis., died Nov. 2, 1994, at Lutheran Hospital, LaCrosse.

She was born in LaCrosse on Nov. 12, 1980 to Larry and Sharon (Nash) Gehl.

Survivors include her parents, Larry and Sharon Gehl, Retreat; two brothers, Scott, Chicago, Ill.; Eric, who is with the U.S. Navy stationed in Bremerton, Wash.; maternal grandparents, Leslie and Gladys Nash, DeSoto; paternal grandparents, Lawrence and Helen Gehl, East Troy; aunts and uncles, Mary and Larry Leahy, Darlington; Allen and Mary Gehl, Victor, Mont.; and Louise Foat, East Troy.

Alice Goetz

Alice Goetz, 96, Monroe, died Tuesday, Nov. 1, 1994, at the Pleasant View Nursing Home.

She was born May 22, 1898, in Willow Springs Township, Lafayette County, the daughter of Gustave and Elizabeth (Daugherty) Burgess. She was a graduate of Darlington High School. She married Joseph Leo Howard Nov. 5, 1919, at Holy Rosary Catholic Church, Darlington. He died in 1966. She then married Chester Goetz in Monroe. He is also deceased.

Alice taught rural schools for three years in Lafayette County. She worked at Burgess Battery during World War II and ran the Benton Phone Company for two years and later worked at St. Clare Hospital, Monroe.

She was a member of St. Victor Catholic Church, Monroe. She was also a member of the Republican Party, the Monroe Women's Club and the American Legion Auxiliary.

Survivors include seven daughters, Mrs. Jane Kuhlman, Lena, Ill; Mrs. Emil (Mary) Bandi, Albany; Mrs. Paul (Ruth) Nelson, Argyle; Mrs. Juanita Olson, Winslow, Ill.; Lucille Howard, Monroe; Mrs. Grace Sullivan, Humbolt, Tenn.; and Mrs. Werner (Hazel) Weissenfluh, Monroe; 12 grandchildren and 23 great-grandchildren.

Mass of Christian Burial was held Saturday, Nov. 5, 1994, at St. Victor Catholic Church, Monroe. Fr. Stephen Umhoefer officiated. Burial was at Holy Rosary Cemetery, Darlington.

The Shriner-Newshwander-Hager Funeral Home, Monroe, was in charge of arrangements.

A memorial fund has been established in her name.

Gertie Hunter

Gertie Hunter, 84, Darlington, died Saturday, Nov. 5, 1994, at Memorial Hospital of Lafayette County, Darlington.

She was born in Wiota Township, Lafayette County, on April 27, 1910, the daughter of Harry and Jennie (Wahler) Komprood. She married Milford Martin, Oct. 24, 1931, at West Wiota Lutheran Church. He died Sept. 25, 1949. She later married Lyle Hunter in Dodgeville on Dec. 27, 1969. He died in 1973.

Gertie lived in the Darlington area most of her life and worked as a clerk at Meier's Bakery in Darlington for a number of years.

She was a member of Wiota Lutheran Church, its Women of the E.L.C.A. and the Royal Neighbors of America Camp #4566 of Darlington. Gertie was a member of the Darlington Senior Citizens where she loved to play cards. She also made many quilts and afghans throughout the years for her family and many local churches.

Survivors include two daughters, Verlene McGowan and Lonna (John) Long, both of Darlington; a son, Lyle (Carol) Martin, Darlington; a brother, Harold (Ramona) Komprood, Wiota; a sister, Viola (Chris) Thompson, Argyle; 14 grandchildren and 21 great-grandchildren.

Funeral services were held Tuesday, Nov. 8, 1994, at Wiota Lutheran Church. Pastor Lisa L. Nelson officiated. Burial was in West Wiota Cemetery. Honorary pallbearers were: Marlene Simmons, Patricia Long, Diane Bredeson, Judy Mathys, Julie Fox and Tim McGowan. Active pallbearers were: Mickey Martin, Gary Martin, Mike McGowan, Steve McGowan, Matthew Long, Mark Long, Dan Long and Dave Long.

Richard McKnight

Richard S. McKnight, rural South Wayne, died at his home Tuesday, Nov. 1, 1994.

He was the son of Samuel and Theresa (Ganshert) McKnight. He attended Colorado Springs Public School and Colorado College at Colorado Springs on a football scholarship, graduating in 1943 with a B.A. in political science and secondary education. He lettered in football and played basketball all four years of college. He also had a rookie contract with the Green Bay Packers.

Richard was a dairy farmer for over 50 years in the South Wayne area. He was a member of the Lafayette County Board for 29 years, being Chairman of the Board from 1982 until 1986. He was a former member of the Wisconsin State University Board of Regents and was Regent Emeritus of the Wisconsin University System.

He was a long time member of the Wisconsin Mining Impact Board and former member of the Wisconsin Health and Planning Council. He had a life-long interest in public service and community development. He served on numerous local boards and committees.

Survivors include his wife, Lois, rural South Wayne; and a daughter, Mary (Richard) Bell, Platteville.

The celebration of Dick's life was held Friday, Nov. 4, 1994, at the Hanson Funeral Home, South Wayne. Burial was at Eastman Cemetery, Wayne Township, Lafayette County.

A memorial fund has been established in his name.

Miss Josephine Murray, 89, of Darlington died Tuesday, Feb. 8, 1983 at Darlington Memorial Hospital.

Services were held at 11:30 a.m. Thursday, Feb. 10 at Holy Rosary Catholic Church, Darlington, with burial in the church cemetery. Friends called from 3 to 9 p.m. Wednesday at the Steil Funeral Home, Darlington.

Surviving are a brother, William of Lancaster and two sisters; Mrs. William (Annie) Gille of Madison and Mrs. Cletus (Florence) Wolfram of Shullsburg.