

Ona was a member of the Wiota Lutheran Church and its WELCA. She was also a member of the Darlington Garden Club. She made many quilt tops for both Grace Lutheran Church, Darlington and Wiota Lutheran Church and quilts for each of her grandchildren. She also supplied information for the Wiota History Book.

Ona is survived by two daughters, Jean Klussendorf, Stevens Point, and Marjorie Monson, New Jersey; three sons, Donald K. (Helen) Monson, Wiota, Robert O. (Joanne) Monson of Janesville, Roger H. (Marian) Monson, Darlington; 13 grandchildren and 26 great grandchildren.

Funeral services were held Tuesday, Dec. 20, 1994, at the Wiota Lutheran Church, with Pastor Lisa L. Nelson officiating. Burial was held at East Wiota Cemetery. Pallbearers were Steven Monson, Dean Monson, Bruce Monson, Kevin Monson, Kurt Klussendorf, and Rick Yeazle.

The Erickson Funeral Home, Darlington, was in charge of the arrangements.

John F. Novinski

John F. Novinski, 59, Madison, died Tuesday, Dec. 13, 1994, at his home.

He was born on July 27, 1935, near Stitzer in Grant County, the son of John F. and Delphia (Budach) Novinski.

He farmed between Dickeyville and Cuba City before moving to Madison in the early 1970's. He worked for Schoep's Ice Cream Co., Madison, for over 20 years before retiring due to ill health. He was currently working as a custodian at the City-County Building, Madison.

Survivors include a daughter, Lynette Novinski, Platteville; three sons, Jeffrey, Gary, and David Novinski, Mineral Point; his mother, Delphia Novinski, Dickeyville; five sisters, Gladys (Donald) Hardy, Platteville; Sue Lyght, Platteville; Betty (George) Edge, Lancaster; Rosemary Novinski, Dickeyville; Judy (Ronald) Rapp, Dubuque, Iowa; five brothers, Robert (Pat) Novinski, Mineral Point; William Novinski, Lancaster; Jerry Novinski, Madison; Edwin and Richard Novinski, Dickeyville.

Funeral services were held Friday, Dec. 16, 1994 at the Bendorf Funeral Home, Platteville. Burial was at the Hillside Cemetery, Lancaster.

Mary Short

Mary A. Short, 75, Darlington, died Wednesday, Dec. 14, 1994, at Memorial Hospital of Lafayette County.

The former Mary Ann Bukoski was born in Fennimore, Feb. 1, 1919, the daughter of Andrew and Barbara (Zitka) Bukoski. She graduated from Fennimore High School in 1936. She was a stenographer and secretary.

She was married to Paul E. Short June 10, 1946, at St. Mary's Catholic Church, Fennimore. They owned and operated Paul's Tap in Darlington for many years.

She was a member of Holy Rosary Catholic Church, Darlington, and of its Council of Catholic Women; the Platteville Elks Club Lodge #1460; and the American Legion Auxiliary Unit #214.

Survivors include her husband, Paul, Darlington; and a brother, James (Tessie) Bukoski, Tomahawk.

Mass of Resurrection was held Saturday, Dec. 17, 1994, at Holy Rosary Catholic Church, Darlington. Father Tom Coyle officiated. Burial was in the church cemetery. Pallbearers were: Jimmy McDonald, Bill Dorman, Willie Riechling, Johnny McDonald, Swede McQuaid and Bob Mosley. Musicians were Arlene Kluesner, Sara Lange and Diego Camacho, Jr. The Steil Camacho Funeral Home, Darlington, was in charge of arrangements.

T. M. Simanowitz

Thelma M. Simanowitz, 83, Mineral Point, died on Saturday, Dec. 17, 1994, at the Mineral Point Care Center.

She was born in Poteau, Okla. on Oct. 4, 1911, the daughter of William and Caledonia (Perry) Griffith. On Oct. 17, 1928, she married Claude A. McKenzie in Poteau, Okla. He died in 1929. She then married James L. Simanowitz in Okla., where she lived a number of years before moving to Leavenworth, Kan. James died in June, 1975. In 1992, she moved to Mineral Point to be near her daughter.

Thelma worked at St. John's Hospital, Leavenworth, Kan. as a nurses' aide for a number of years, and later at Wadsworth V.A. Hospital, Wadsworth, Kan., retiring in 1959.

She was a member of Sacred Heart Catholic Church, Leavenworth, Kan., and a past member of St. John's Hospital Guild, Leavenworth, Kan. She enjoyed gardening, and loved to work with house plants. She would go fishing at a moments notice. She also enjoyed garage sales, looking for antiques and other valuable items.

Thelma is survived by a daughter, Helen (McKenzie) Tindell, Shullsburg; a son, Anthony (Perla) Simanowitz, San Diego, Calif.; three brothers, William R. (Dorothy) Griffith, Jr., Panama, Okla., David (Anna) Griffith, Charles (Thelma) Griffith, both of Poteau; two sisters, Nell Davis, Poteau, Rina (William) Billy, Heavener, Okla.; ten grandchildren and eighteen great-grandchildren.

Funeral services were held Wednesday, Dec. 21, 1994, at Sacred Heart Catholic Church in Leavenworth, Kan.

The O'Flaherty-Erickson Funeral Home, Shullsburg, served the family.

Ernest Mowry

Ernest H. "Ernie" Mowry, 75, Leadmine, died of cancer Tuesday, Dec. 20, 1994, at his home.

He was born June 12, 1919, in White Oak Township, the son of Harry and Sarah (Field) Mowry. He married Kathleen Byrne Aug. 30, 1947, at St. Patrick's Church, Janesville. He was a graduate of New Diggings High School and served in the Army Air Corps during World War II.

Ernest established and operated Mowry Trucking for 40 years before turning the business over to his sons. He ran the family farm near New Diggings and operated Mowry Transport School Buses. He was a member of St. Patrick's Catholic Church, Benton. He served on the Lafayette county Board for 14 years where he was chairman of the Highway Committee and a member of the Law Enforcement Committee.

Survivors include his wife, Kathleen; two daughters, Carol Alexander, Mary (Ron) Belken, three sons, Michael (Patti), William (Mary), John (Vicki), all of the Benton area; 14 grandchildren; and a brother, Robert, Dubuque, Iowa.

Funeral services will be held Friday, Dec. 23, 1994, 10:30 a.m., at St. Patrick's Catholic Church, Benton. Rev. Francis Dominic will officiate. Burial is in the church cemetery. Friends may call from 2 - 9 p.m., Thursday, Dec. 22, 1994, at the Casey Funeral Home, Benton. The parish wake service will be at 3 p.m.

An Ernest Mowry memorial Fund has been established.

14 Thursday.

December 29, 1994

REPUBLICAN JOURNAL

Harry Andrews

Harry D. Andrews, 78, Darlington, died Sunday, Dec. 25, 1994, at Memorial Hospital of Lafayette County, Darlington.

He was born in Lamont Township, June 6, 1916, the son of Philo and Grace (Chambers) Andrews. Harry graduated from Andrews rural school in Lamont and later from Darlington High School in 1934. On Sept. 29, 1939, he married Jeanette E. McKitrick in Dubuque, Iowa. They lived and farmed in the Lamont area until retiring into Darlington in 1983.

Harry was a member of the Lamont United Methodist Church. He was a past chairman and member of the Lamont Town Board for 20 years. He was also a member of Evening Star Lodge #64 Free and Accepted Masons of Darlington and its Zor Shrine. He enjoyed fishing and watching the Packers.

Survivors include his wife, Jeanette, at home; a daughter, Carolyn (Robert) Belton, Loomis, Calif.; three sons, Harvey (Janet) Andrews, Ronald Andrews, all of Darlington; Gary (Joan) Andrews, Webster, Fla. 13 grandchildren and 13 great-grandchildren.

Funeral services were held Wednesday, Dec. 28, 1994, at the Lamont United Methodist Church. Pastor Mary Friederich officiated. Burial was in Union Grove Cemetery, Darlington. Pallbearers were: Blake Andrews, Gene Andrews, Steve Andrews, Chris Andrews, Gary Andrews, Jr., Dan Goeble. Honorary pallbearers were: Homer Mosley, Howard Sutherland, Mervin Thompson, Kenny Andrews, LaVerne Gille, Boyd McKitrick and Fremont Calvert.

The Erickson Funeral Home, Darlington, served the family.

Millie Bredeson

Millie N. Bredeson, 86, Argyle, died Sunday, Dec. 25, 1994, at the Monroe Manor Nursing Home, Monroe.

She was born in Lamont Township, Lafayette County, Oct. 8, 1908, the daughter of John and Belle (Nelson) Vinger. On Oct. 27, 1926, she married Bjarne A.

Bredeson in Freeport, Ill. He died May 8, 1977. She lived and farmed with her husband in the Argyle and Blanchardville area before retiring into Argyle in 1961. Millie also cleaned house for many families in Argyle.

Millie was a member of the Yellowstone Lutheran Church and its WELCA. She loved to crochet and enjoyed embroidering.

Survivors include five sons: Vernus (Betty) Bredeson, Dalton, Ga.; Bernard (Judy) Bredeson, Rockford, Ill.; Martin (Virginia) Bredeson, Argyle; Gerald (Hope) Bredeson, Loves Park, Ill.; Robert (Mary Ann) Bredeson, Beloit; three daughters, Marie C. Mason, Mavis (Burnette) Robertson, both of Monroe; Berneice (James) Benz, Rockford, Ill.; 29 grandchildren; 50 great-grandchildren; and two great-grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held Thursday, Dec. 29, 1994, at 11 a.m. at Yellowstone Lutheran Church with Pastor Daniel L. Bohlman officiating. Pallbearers are: Rick Mason, James Benz, D.D.S., Burnette Robertson, Jr., Brian Bredeson, Jeff Bredeson and Kevin Bredeson.

Burial will be in Yellowstone Lutheran Church cemetery. Friends may call on Wednesday, Dec. 28, 1994, from 4 until 8 p.m. at the Erickson Funeral Home, Argyle.

Mary Dagenhardt

Mary Dagenhardt, 85, Shullsburg, died Wednesday, Dec. 21, 1994, at the Lafayette Manor Nursing Home, Darlington.

She was born in Shullsburg Nov. 10, 1909, the daughter of Michael and Mary (Mulcahy) Troy. On Nov. 22, 1932, she married George Dagenhardt at St. Matthew's Catholic Church, Shullsburg. She lived and farmed in the Shullsburg area all of her life.

Mary was a member of St. Matthew's Catholic Church, Shullsburg.

She is survived by her husband, at the Lafayette Manor Nursing Home; a sister, Genevieve Maas, Beloit, and several nieces and nephews.

Funeral services were held Friday, Dec. 23, 1994, at St. Matthew's Church with burial at the cemetery. Pallbearers were Tony O'Brien, Vincent Troy, Ardell Troy, Carl Pahnke, LeRoy Fields, Robert Troy, and Dennis Troy.

The O'Flaherty-Erickson Funeral Home, Shullsburg, served the family.

Goldie M. Johnson

Goldie M. Johnson, 88, Argyle, died Wednesday, Dec. 21, 1994 at the Monroe Manor Nursing Home, Monroe.

She was born in Blanchardville Township, Lafayette County, Aug. 16, 1906, the daughter of Otto and Bertha (Kolden) Kammerud. On Sept. 25, 1923, she married Hans Johnson in Freeport, Ill. She lived and farmed with her husband in the Lafayette County area before moving to Blue Mounds in 1951. In 1976, they moved to Argyle, where she has resided since. Her husband died June 18, 1981.

Goldie was a member of Yellowstone Lutheran Church and its WELCA. She was a past member of West Blue Mounds Lutheran Church, Blue Mounds, and its church choir. She was also a past Bainbridge 4-H Club leader. Goldie loved to play 500. She also loved to sing and dance.

She is survived by four daughters, Vernalee Dorsey, Argyle; Mayona Lewis, Neillsville; Nancy (Douglas) Caldwell, Blanchardville; Connie (Dennis) Relihan, Naperville, Ill.; three sons, Malcolm (Elizabeth) Johnson, Argyle; Bernard (Atha) Johnson, Fort Smith, Ark.; Richard (Sarah) Johnson, Blanchardville; two sisters, Olive Nelson, Blanchardville; Helga Moen, Argyle; 15 grandchildren, 24 great-grandchildren, and a great-great granddaughter.

Funeral services were held Tuesday, Dec. 27, 1994, at Yellowstone Lutheran Church with Pastor Daniel L. Bohlman officiating. Burial was at the Yellowstone cemetery. Pallbearers were: Mike Dorsey, David Johnson, Jeffrey Johnson, James Johnson, Steve Johnson, Steve Dieckhoff. Honorary pallbearers were: Ernest Johnson, Amos Johnson, Knute Johnson, and Burlie Johnson.

The Erickson Funeral Home, Argyle, was in charge of arrangements.

Margery C. Lyne

Margery C. Lyne, 66, Shullsburg, died Wednesday, Dec. 21, 1994, at Memorial Hospital of Lafayette County, following a short illness.

She was born in New Diggings, March 2, 1928, the daughter of James and Amanda (Northouse) Farrey. She graduated from Shullsburg High School in 1945. On Feb. 12, 1947, she married Howard J. Lyne at St. Matthew's Rectory, Shullsburg. He died Dec. 5, 1985.

Margery lived in the Shullsburg area all of her life where she worked as a nurses aid in the Shullsburg Home for 16 years. She was an Avon representative and a Merimac Toy distributor for over 20 years in Shullsburg.

Margery was a member of Centenary United Methodist Church, Shullsburg, and its UMW. Margery was also a member of the Shullsburg Legion Auxiliary of the McCann-Richards American Legion Post #105 of Shullsburg. She loved to play cards and all types of gardening.