

Erickson Funeral Home, Darlington, was in charge of arrangements.

Mildred Rowe

Mildred Rowe, 92, Darlington, died Thursday, March 16, 1995, at the Lafayette Manor Nursing Home, Darlington.

She was born in the Town of Darlington, May 23, 1902, the daughter of Martin and Tillie (Nelson) Christianson. On April 17, 1926, she married William Rowe in Freeport, Ill. She lived and farmed with her husband in the Wiota Township until retiring to the City of Darlington in 1989. Mr. Rowe died June 16, 1994.

Mildred taught rural school at Apple Branch and Reed Schools for a number of years. She was a member of Apple Grove Lutheran Church, where she served as past president of its Women of the ELCA, and taught Sunday school for a number of years. She was also a charter member of the Van Matre Homemakers. Mildred enjoyed cooking.

Survivors include four sons, Donald (Harriett) Rowe, Gratiot; Richard Rowe, Gerald (Marjorie) Rowe, all of Darlington; James (Joyce) Rowe, Oregon; two daughters, Leone O'Brien, Darlington; Marian (Mrs. Maurice) Rear, Argyle; a sister, Edna Hermanson, Woodford; 18 grandchildren and 17 great-grandchildren.

Funeral services were held Tuesday, March 21, 1995, at the Apple Grove Lutheran Church, rural Argyle. Rev. Daniel L. Bohlman officiated. Burial was in Union Grove Cemetery, Darlington. Pallbearers were: Bill O'Brien, Thomas Rowe, Dan O'Brien, Pat O'Brien, Thomas Rear, Allen Rowe, Jason Rowe and Mark Rowe.

The Erickson Funeral Home, Darlington, served the family.

Charles F. Shea

Charles F. Shea, 89, Mineral Point and formerly of Darlington, died Wednesday, March 15, 1995, at Mineral Point Care Center.

He was born March 15, 1906, in Darlington, the son of Daniel F. and Celia N. (O'Donnell) Shea.

Survivors include two brothers, Timothy (Blanche) Shea, Darlington and Elmer Shea, King.

Mass of Resurrection was held Saturday, March 18, 1995, at Holy Rosary Catholic Church, Darlington. Father Tom Coyle officiated. Burial was at the church cemetery. Pallbearers were: Carl "Jake" Jacobson, George Mulcahy, Tom Smith, Charles Connolly and Ben DeMuth. Musicians were Arlene Kluesner and Diego Camacho, Jr.

The Steil Camacho Funeral Home, Darlington, served the family.

Roy Sorensen

Roy James Sorensen, Ukiah, Calif., died March 3, 1995, at the Santa Rosa Memorial Hospital after a battle with renal failure.

He was born Aug. 18, 1934, in Ballard, Wash. and had been a resident of Ukiah, Calif. since 1970. He was widely known throughout Mendocino County as an administrator and school psychologist with the Mendocino County Schools Office of Education. He retired in 1990.

Roy graduated from the University of Washington, Seattle with a major in Spanish and English. He began his teaching career at James Monroe Junior High, his alma mater in Ballard. He earned his M.A. at the University of the Pacific, International School of Studies, in Stockton, Calif., majoring in Linguistics in Spanish as well as counseling and school psychology. Roy traveled as an educator. In foreign countries, his teaching experiences included teaching in American Schools in Japan and Okinawa. He was transferred to Bolivia in 1965.

Roy was also a veteran of the Korean Conflict.

Survivors include his wife, the former Joan Virtue, a daughter Elizabeth; his mother, Caroline Sorensen, Ballard, Wash.; a brother, Heine (Marilyn); in-laws, John "Buck" (Chris) Virtue, Janice (Richard) Sydow, Kay (Tom) Wiegel, Rita Rasmussen, Steve Rasmussen, Richard (Sheila) Virtue, all of Wisconsin; Peggy (Kevin) Murray, Minn.; and Robert Virtue of Bermuda.

A memorial service was held March 9, 1995, at Eversole Mortuary with Rev. Gary Zeek officiating along with family members and friends. A memorial planting will be held at the family cottage in Caspar later in May.

Marie Viktora

A. Marie Viktora, 86, Muscoda, died in the Richland Center Hospital March 4, 1995.

She was born Nov. 14, 1908, at Turman in Kendall Township, Lafayette County, the daughter of Daniel and Elizabeth (Diamond) Deery. She graduated from Darlington High School and then from the Platteville Normal Teachers College. She taught elementary grades in the Hazel Valley School until her marriage Oct. 16, 1934, to Paul Viktora. They owned and operated the Fairplay Cheese Factory at Sinsinawa until 1946 when they moved to Muscoda. Mr. Viktora died April 13, 1969.

Marie taught in St. John's Catholic School in Muscoda in the 1960s. She was a member of St. John the Baptist Catholic Church, Council of Catholic Women, Catholic Order of Foresters and the Legion of Mary and was a volunteer at the St. Vincent de Paul store in Muscoda.

She is survived by two daughters, Eileen (James) Wilkinson and Marjorie (Arnold) Bomkamp, Muscoda; a son, Daniel Viktora, Davenport, Iowa; a sister, Josephine (Robert) Leahy, Belmont; 13 grandchildren; and 20 great-grandchildren.

Funeral services were held March 7, 1995, at St. John the Baptist Catholic Church, Muscoda. Burial was in St. John's Cemetery.

20 Thursday, March 30, 1995

REPUBLICAN JOURNAL

Charles Barclay

Charles E. Barclay, 55, Waukesha, formerly of Shullsburg, died Sunday, March 26, 1995, at Elmbrook Memorial Hospital, Brookfield.

He was born March 6, 1940, in LaFarge, the son of Virgil and Molly Barclay. He lived in LaFarge until moving to Darlington with his parents in 1955. He later moved to Shullsburg in 1958 where he drove truck for Mc-Mor-Han Trucking Company until 1965 when he moved to Milwaukee and worked for Crucible Steel and later for Advance Transportation Company.

He was a member of the Teamsters Local 710. Charlie logged over 5,000,000 miles throughout his years of truck driving.

He is survived by his mother, Molly Barclay, Viroqua; three sons, David (Susan), St. Paul, Minn.; Allan, Watertown, Tenn.; Brian, Vesper; two sisters, Shirley (James) Benish, Hillsboro; Janice (Bernard) Schmitz, Mineral Point; and four grandchildren.

Funeral services were held Wednesday, March 29, 1995, at the O'Flaherty-Erickson Funeral Home, Shullsburg. Rev. James R. Lins of St. Matthew's Catholic Church, Shullsburg, officiated. Burial was in St. Matthew's Cemetery, Shullsburg. Pallbearers were: David Barclay, Allan Barclay, Brian Barclay, Daniel Morrissey, Darrell Morrissey and Bill Stocker.

The O'Flaherty-Erickson Funeral Home, Shullsburg, was in charge of arrangements.

Clinton Erickson

Clinton T. Erickson, 71, who made his home with Marvin and Ruth Siedschlag, Monroe, for the past 13 years, died Saturday, March 25, 1995.

He was born July 15, 1923, in Wiota Township, Lafayette County, the son of Clarence and Mathilda "Tillie" (Bergum) Erickson.

He attended the rural Jennings School and worked for Greenco Industries for many years.

He attended the Calvary Temple Assemblies of God.

Survivors are two sisters, Mrs. Doris Beck, Benton, and Mrs. Ernie (Lillian) Phillips, Ocala, Fla.; and Marvin and Ruth Siedschlag, Monroe.

Funeral services were held Tuesday, March 28, 1995, at Shriner-Neushwander-Hager Funeral Home, Monroe. The Rev. Michael Campbell officiated. Burial was in East Wiota Lutheran Cemetery, Wiota.

A memorial fund was established in his name.

Maxine Goodrich

Maxine A. Goodrich, 79, Darlington, died March 16, 1995, at Lafayette County Manor.

She was born in Willow Springs Township July 16, 1915, to Hugh and Mary (Hanrahan) Taylor. In 1933 she graduated from Darlington High School. She then graduated from Platteville Normal School with a teaching certificate.

Howard Goodrich, Darlington, and Maxine were married in Missouri. They had one child, Janice (Evan) Miller, of Florida and Ohio. She is also survived by a sister, Florence Evenstad, Darlington; nephews Gene Taylor, Genoa; Jerry (Jane) Evenstad, LaCrosse; Homer (Katie) Evenstad; and niece Jeanie (Harold) Crist, of Darlington. Howard died in 1963.

Maxine taught elementary education in several country schools near Darlington for 14 years. In 1957 she changed careers and was a Lafayette County Social Worker, retiring in 1980. With her husband, Maxine co-owned the Goodrich Insurance Agency and the Goodrich Gas Station in Darlington. During the late 1940's and early 50's Maxine and Howard operated the Badger Buslines between Darlington, New Glarus and Madison.

She was a member of the Darlington United Methodist Church and was past president of its Patience Circle. In 1993 she was awarded the Doc O'Flaherty Award for volunteerism. Her activities included: membership on the board of the Lafayette County Historical Society for 14 years; working with the Lafayette Association for Retarded Children which sent handicapped children to summer camp; reading at the Lafayette Manor; membership on the Advisory Council of the Community Options Program; and assembling the Commission on Aging's newsletter "Upper Horizon".

Services were held Tuesday, March 21, 1995, at the Erickson Funeral Home, Darlington. Burial was at Union Grove Cemetery, Darlington. Honorary pallbearers were: Marie Hanson, Nilva Leahy, Judy Butz, Sadie Gilbertson, Vicki Whitford, Nancy Amenda, Barb Judkins, Della Clayton, Naomi Glendenning and Susan Wiegel. Pallbearers were: Paul Godfrey, Bob Helm, Dick Craig, Red Amenda, Tony Wiegel and Terry Rasmussen.

Memorials may be made to the Darlington United Methodist Church, Union Grove Cemetery, Lafayette County Historical Society and the Darlington Public Library.

Jennifer Heimann Michelle Heimann

Jennifer M. Heimann, 24, and her one year old daughter, Michelle E. Heimann, Gratiot Township, died Tuesday, March 21, 1995, from injuries sustained in a car accident.

Jennifer was born Aug. 25, 1970, in Dubuque, Iowa, the daughter of Reuben and Irene (Kringle) Balk. She graduated from Dubuque Senior High School in 1988. She was married to Gerald K. Heimann Aug. 27, 1988, in Dubuque, Iowa. They farmed in Gratiot.

Jennifer was an avid volleyball and softball player. She also loved working with children.

Michelle was born Nov. 22, 1993, in Dubuque, Iowa, daughter of Jennifer and Gerald.

They were members of St. Joseph's Catholic Church, Gratiot. Jennifer was also a member of the Gratiot First Responders.

Jennifer and Michelle are survived by: Gerald K. Heiman, husband and father, Gratiot; Megan Rose Heimann, daughter and sister; Irene Balk, mother and grandmother, Dubuque, Iowa; four sisters and aunts: Joan (Russell) Schuetz, Darlington; Joyce (Mike) Tricarico, Dubuque, Iowa; Janice Proscher, Wingdale, N.Y.; Janann (Rick) Gertsch, Gratiot; a brother and uncle, Reuben (Janet) Balk, Dubuque, Iowa; Kenneth and Lois (Larson) Heimann, in-laws and grandparents, Gratiot; two sister-in-laws and aunts, Kathy (Denny) Potter, Gratiot; Lori (John) Trumpy, Winslow, Ill.; and two brother-in-laws, John Heimann, Gratiot; Rick (Nancy) Heimann, Darlington. Nine nephews, nieces and cousins, Jamie, Jennifer, Joey Heimann; Andrea, Aaron and Austin Balk; Jason and Josh Potter; Alex Gertsch; Bonnie Morarend and Oliver Kringle, Godparents to Jennifer; and Sharon Drees, Janann Gertsch and John Heimann, Godparents to Michelle.

Funeral services were held Saturday, March 25, 1995, at St. Joseph's Catholic Church, Gratiot. Father Jerold Fitzpatrick officiated. Burial was at the church cemetery.

Honorary pallbearers were: Gratiot First Response, Leo Kringle, Jr., Quinn Morarend, Rodney Gertsch, Chad Morarend and Terry Balk. Active pallbearers were: Steve Cernek, Jim Stietz, Greg Haffele, Carl Wick, Gary Chapin, Rick Hardyman, Duane Wildermuth and Clarence Eicher. Musicians were Arlene Kluesner, Sara Lange and Diego Camacho, Jr.

The Steil Camacho Funeral Home, Darlington, served the family.

Eva Meade

Eva E. Meade, 95, formerly of Apple River, Ill., died Wednesday, March 22, 1995, at Lafayette County Manor Nursing Home, Darlington.

She was born July 6, 1899, in Wiota Township, Lafayette County, the daughter of Henry and Mary Jane (Fortune) Spore. She married Harry E. Meade in October 1919, at St. Joseph Catholic Church, Apple River. He died in 1974.

Eva was employed many years at the Savanna Ordnance Depot, Savanna, Ill., and by the Jewel Hotel, Apple River. She was a member of St. Joseph Catholic Church, Apple River, and the Ladies Auxiliary of the Apple River Legion Post.

Survivors are two brothers, Victor Spore, Stockton, Ill. and Orville Spore, Shullsburg.

Funeral services were held Friday, March 24, 1995, at Bartell-Leamon Funeral Home, Warren, Ill., followed by a Mass of Christian Burial at St. Joseph Catholic Church. Rev. Everett Hiller officiated. Burial was in St. Joseph Cemetery, Apple River.

A memorial was established in her name.

Dora M. Tindell

Dora M. Tindell, 84, Platteville, died Wednesday, March 22, 1995 at the K.S.B. Hospital in Dixon, Ill.

She was born on Feb. 20, 1911 in Lancaster, the daughter of Tony and Bessie Drew Knox. In 1928, she married Harry Tindell. He died on December 17, 1977.

She is survived by a sister, Nora Tracy, Lancaster, nine grandchildren and 21 great-grandchildren.

Private graveside memorial services will be held at a later date. The Bendorf Funeral Home, Platteville, is in charge of arrangements.

Roxy E. Davis

Roxy E. Davis, 90, Mineral Point, died on Monday, March 27, 1995, at the Memorial Hospital of Iowa County, Dodgeville after an